Relating to each person with sincerity is difficult in the progressive society of 1971. Through honesty and care, this teacher is able to set up this kind of sincere relationship which is constantly sought but not often found. With limitless patience, she makes the problems of her students those of her own, whether they are scholastic or domestic difficulties. If she finds herself unable to fully respond to a pupil's question, she researches the matter until she can. To this teacher, the classroom is a place for students to air their views on various topics and become better acquainted with each other. Because she works to form these channels of communication, her students look to her as a friend as well as a teacher. For her love of Kimball and its students, the 1971 annual staff dedicates this EXCALIBUR to “Change,” “decision,” “work,” “stamina,” “peace” — these words bring a vision of progress to today’s youth. For every Kimball Knight, the idea of “seeking the best” varies with his own personality. For some, the road to progress involves that all-important “A,” and to others it means giving every ounce of enthusiasm to school activities. Still others hold as their dream of progress the winning of friendship. Progress is not inevitable — it must be made as a culmination of all these hopes — slowly, Step by Step.

The First Step

Walking into uncertainty . . . ignorant of traditions . . . seeking new friends . . . accepting more responsibilities . . . treading down an unfamiliar corridor.

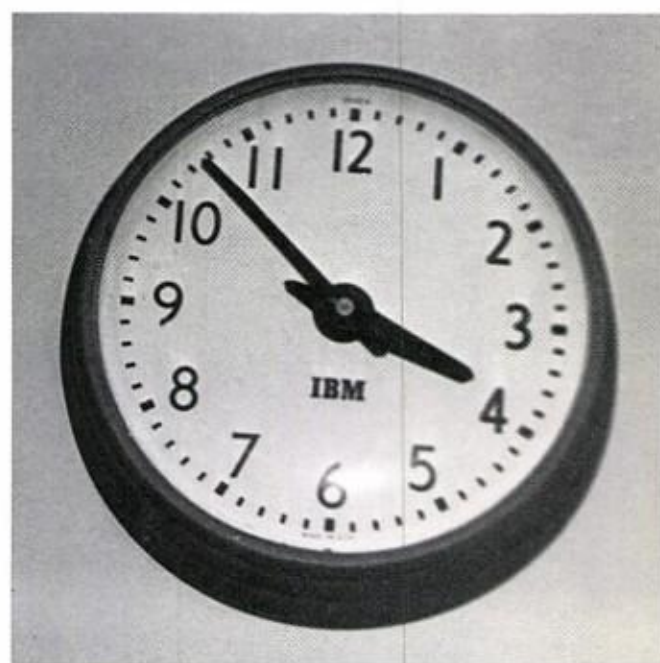

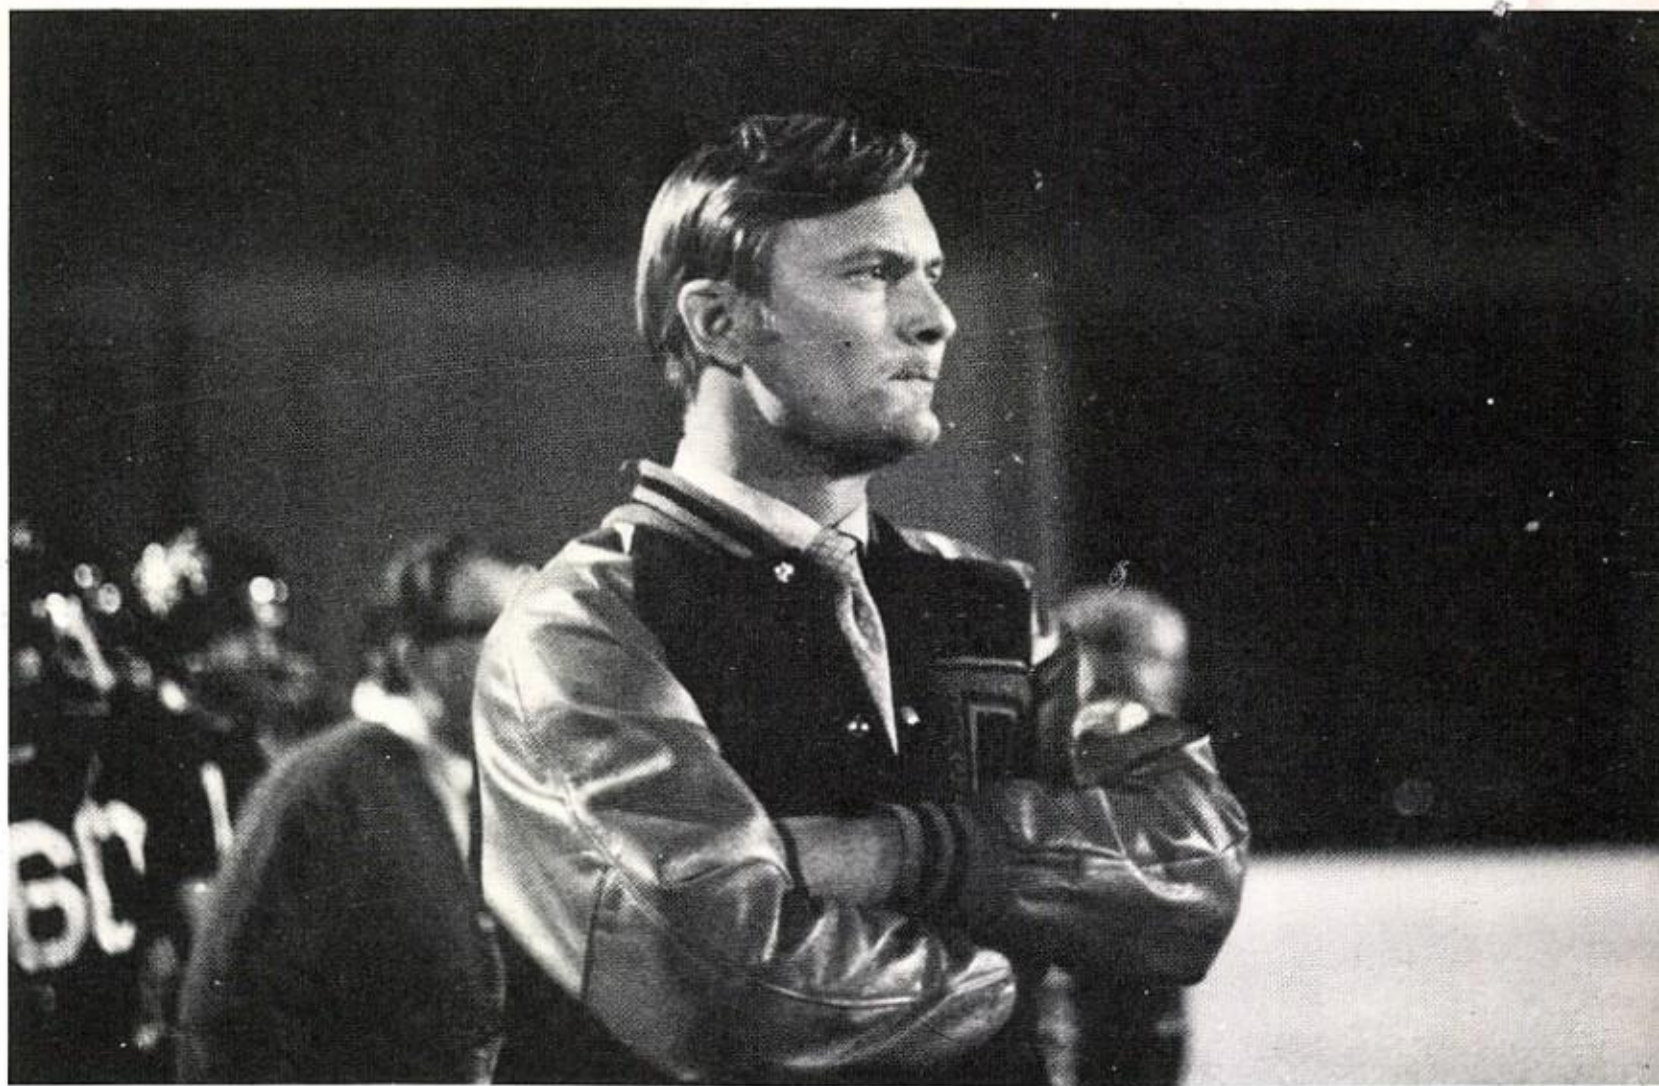

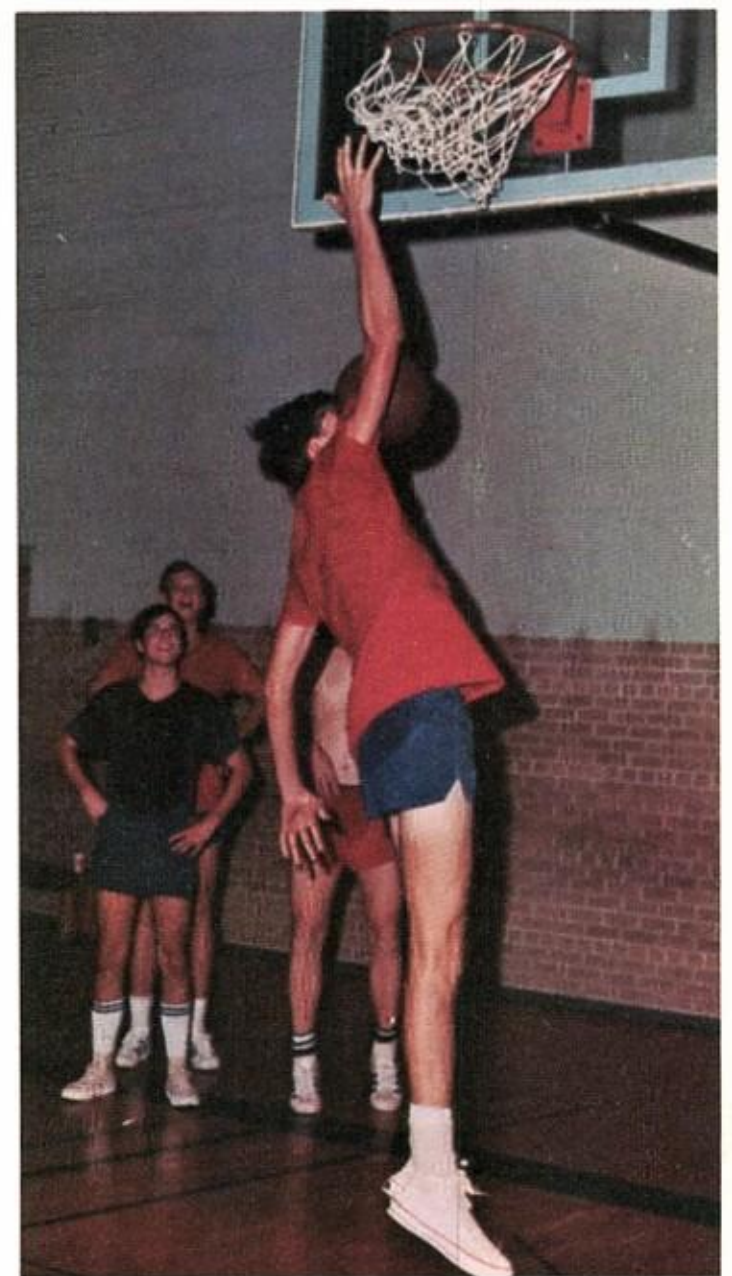

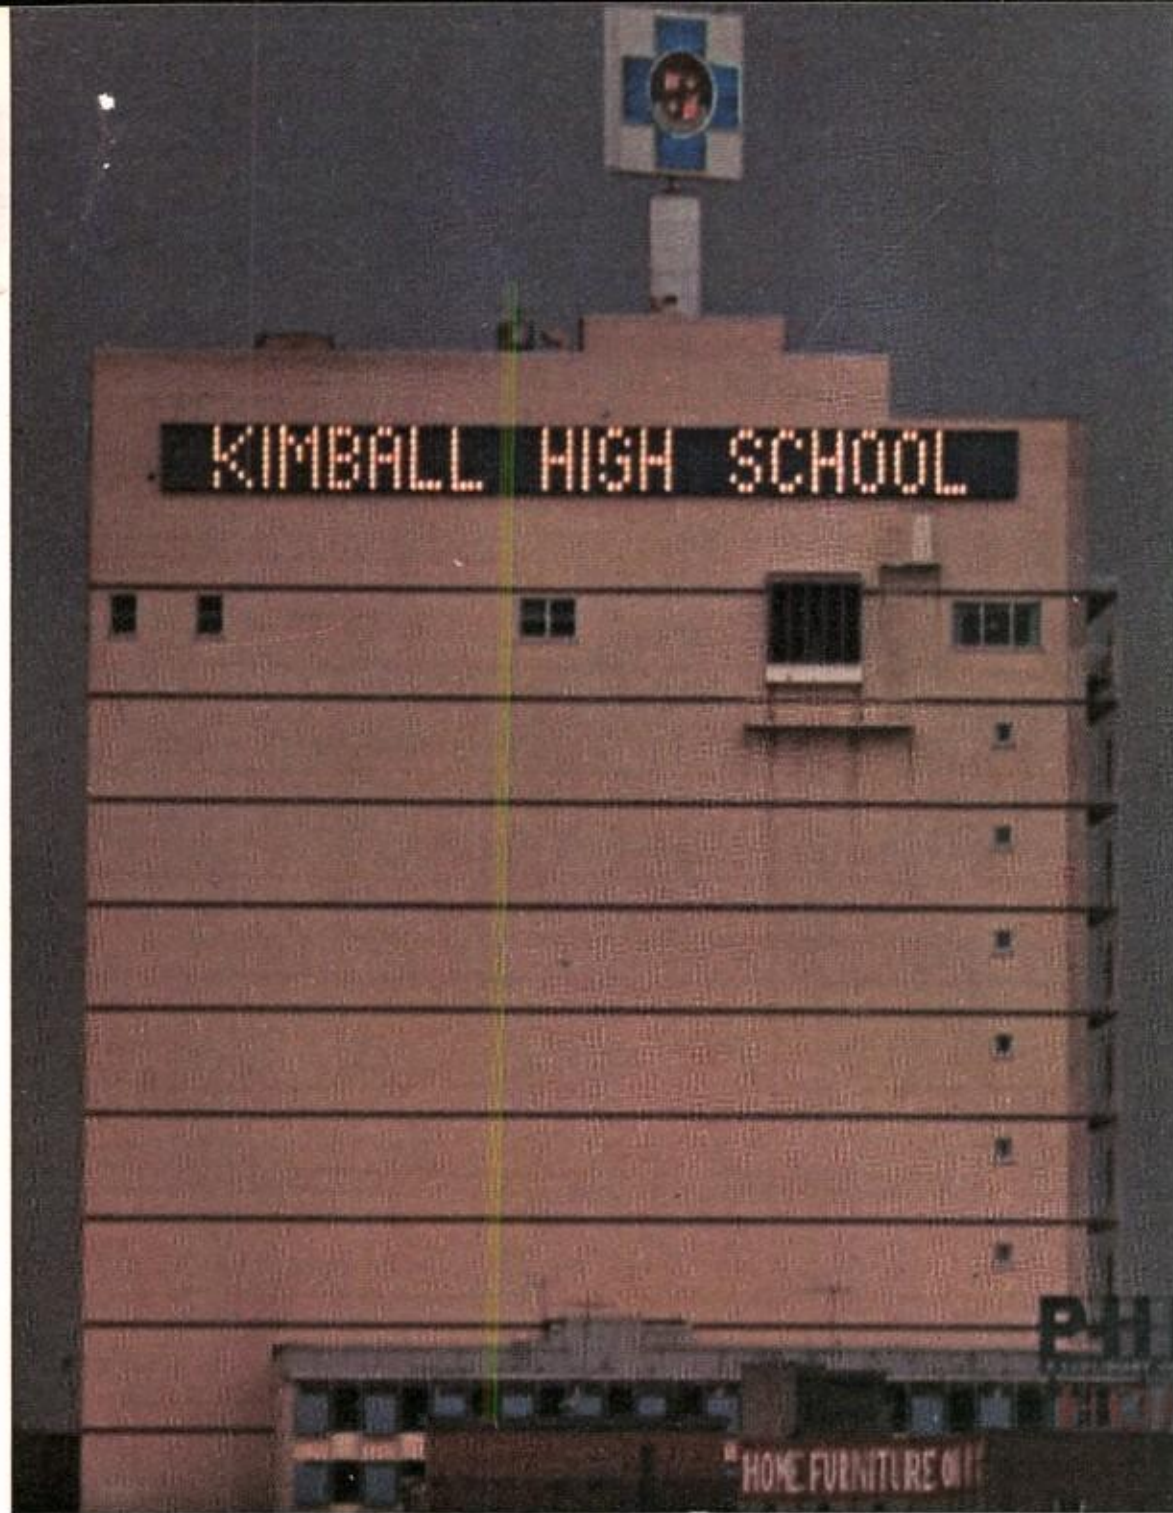

Steps of Happiness

*Dashing out of school with the ring of the last bell . . . running to the swimming pool on a hot summer day . . .
strolling to the favorite haunt for a hamburger
. . . being with that special person.*

Winning Steps

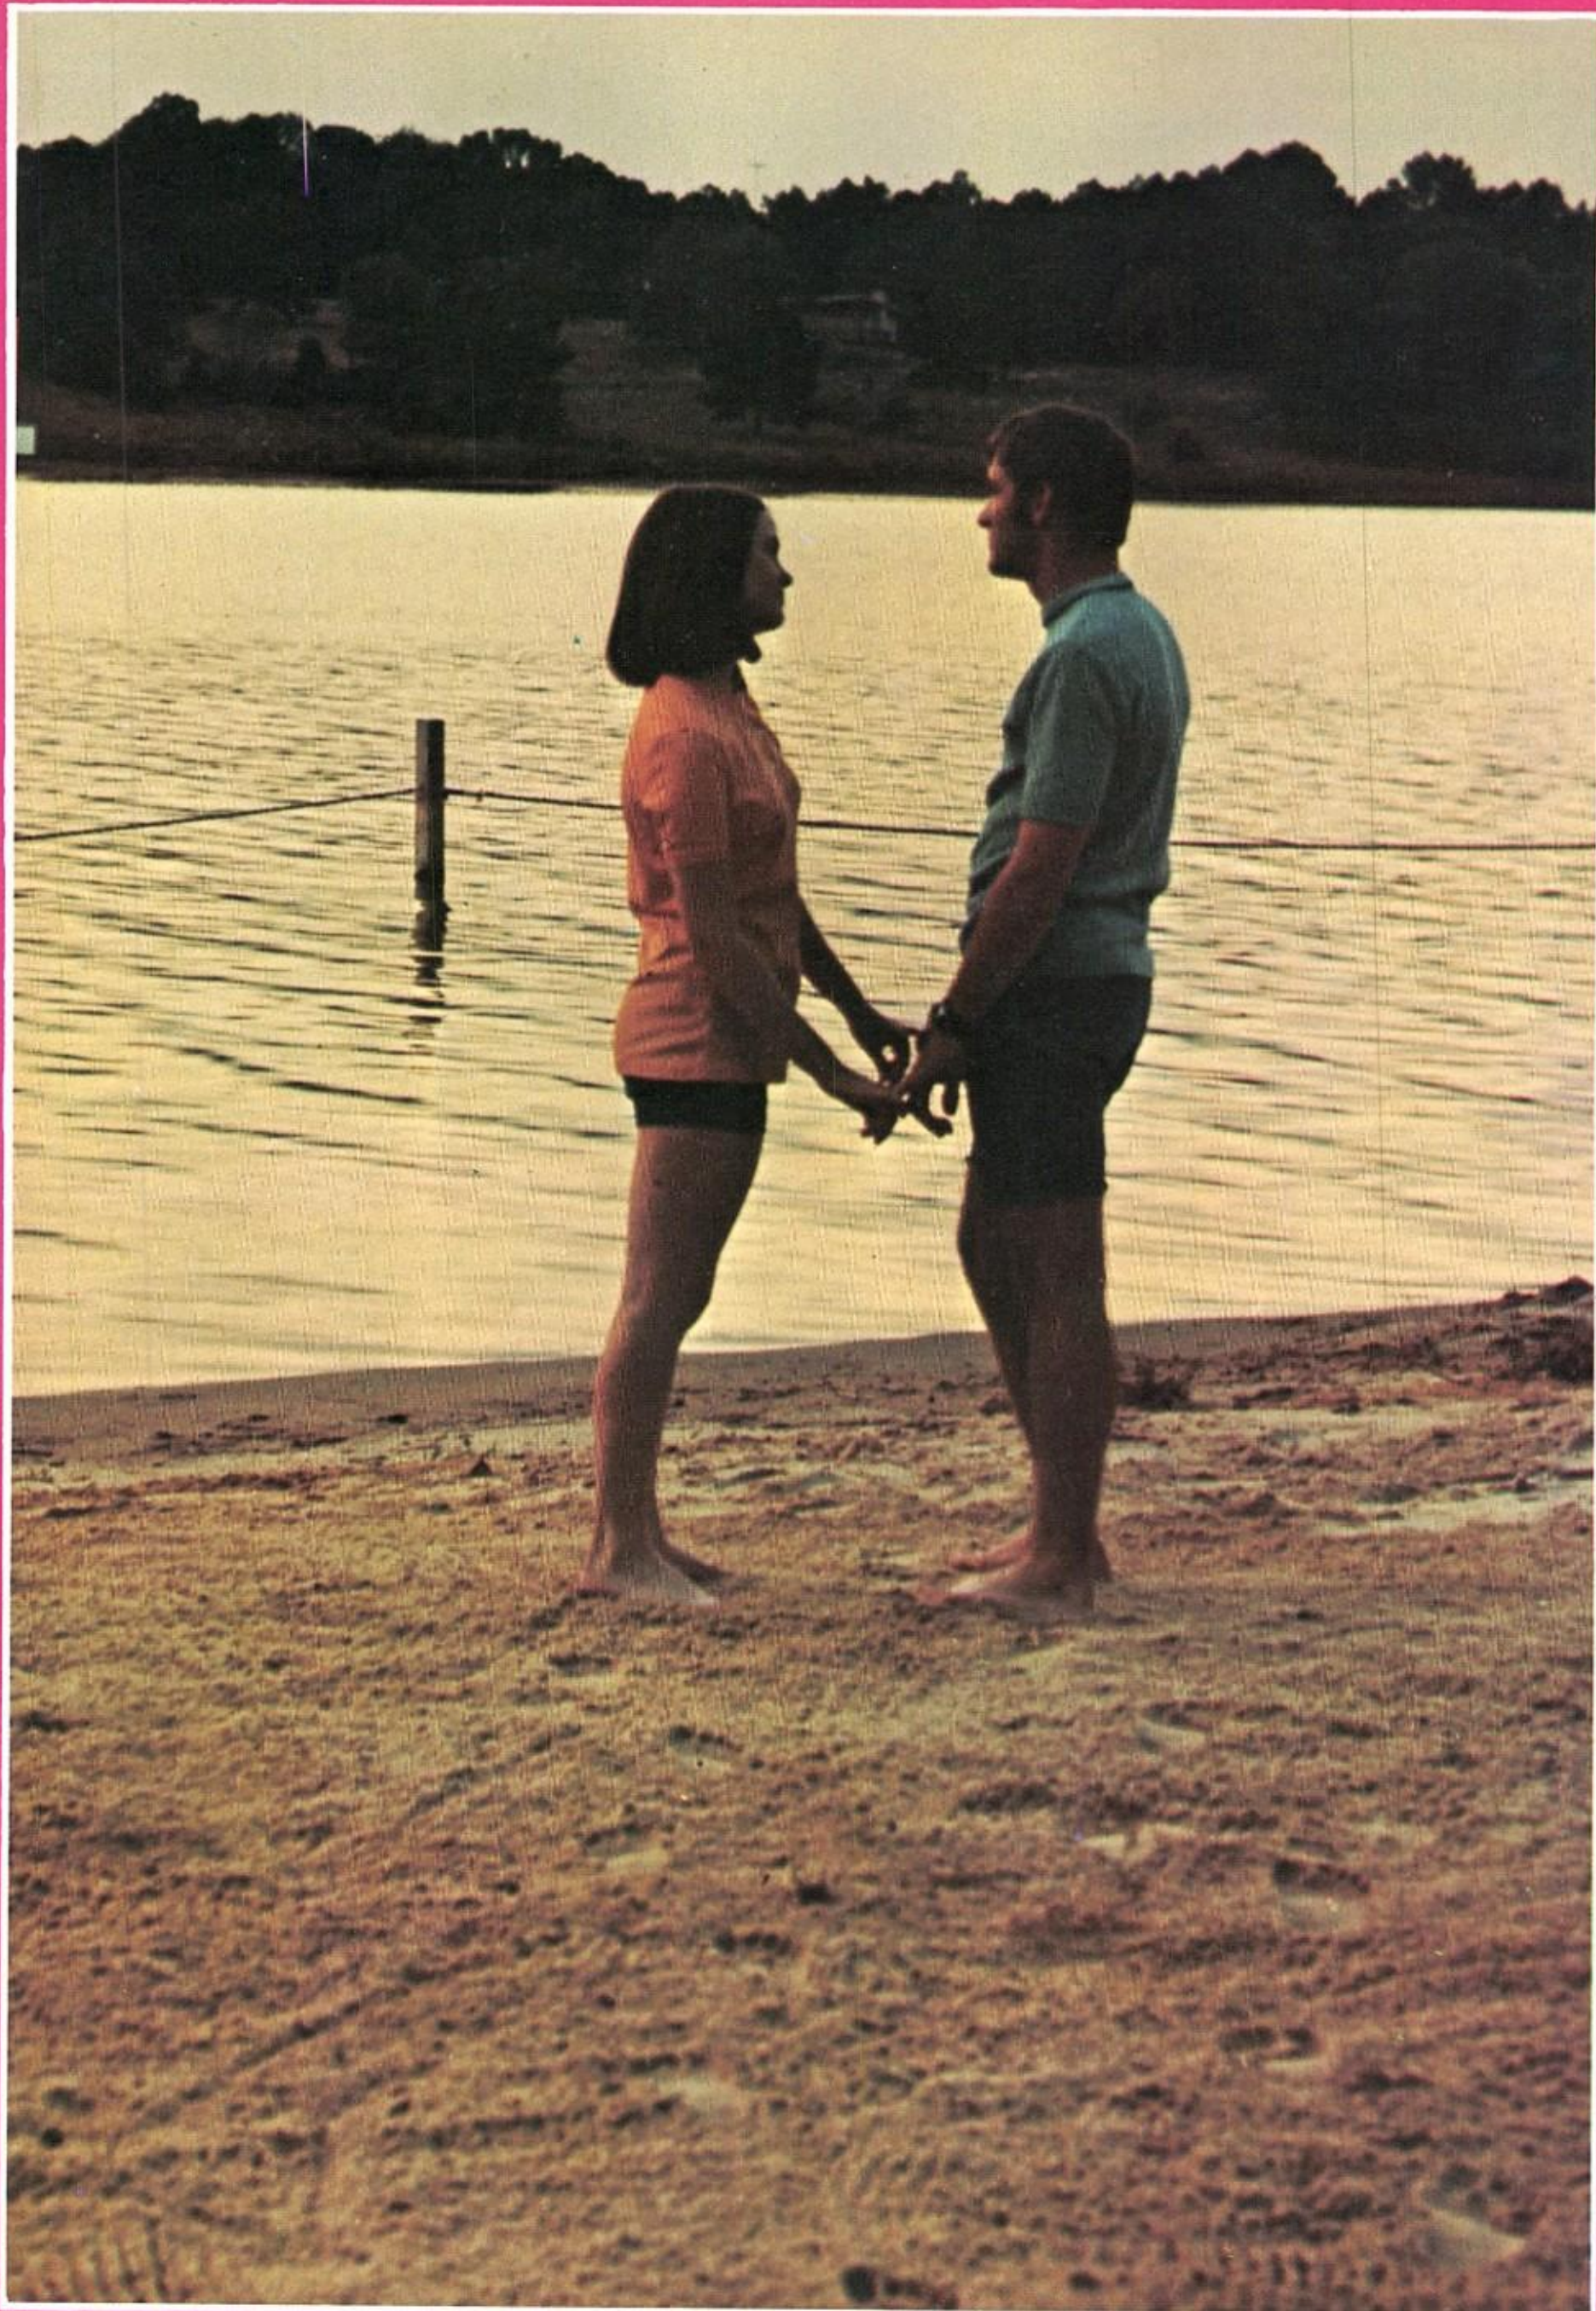

Struggling to get a first down . . . running down the court for a final basket . . . striving for perfect form, reputation, glory.

Steps Into the Future

The step that counts the most . . . into a world of new faces . . . at work . . . or college . . . a giant step forward in the walk of life.

Academics

Assistant Superintendents

Seated around the table from left: Herman F. Benthul, Curriculum; H. D. Pearson, Business; Rogers Barton, Planning; Allen G. Cannon, Personnel; Robert H. McKay, Operations; Hollis Allen, Pupil Personnel; Don E. Matthews, Communications; Dale Douglas, Deputy Superintendent; Nolan Estes, General Superintendent; C. C. Miller, Development.

Since Dr. Nolan Estes was officially appointed as General Superintendent on September 1, 1968, seven priority goals designed to keep the Dallas Independent School District abreast of a rapidly changing world were established. Dr. Estes considered this to be "the most important step" taken since he has been in Dallas.

By establishing goals the District chose what were some of the most challenging problems facing Dallas Schools. To reach the first goal, "individualized instruction," it was necessary to move toward more flexible instruction and scheduling based upon the needs, abilities, and realistic expectations of the individual student. Community relations were a second priority; more creative methods were searched for to involve the community in school programs. Another goal was the early childhood education program. In effect, this program would add another year to the school life of a child. A bad stigma afflicts the vocational training program in Dallas. Finding a way to get more students interested and enrolled in vocational education was a major goal of the District. Other priorities came under the headings "Adequate Financing," "Staff Development," and "Research and Planning." These are the challenges faced by the District the past year, and the challenges it will face until they can be met and overcome.

Mr. Durrett addresses the student body.

When one thinks of Kimball it is impossible not to think of Mr. William P. Durrett. His accomplishments, hopes, and dreams are the backbone of Kimball and what Kimball stands for. He is the central support around which Kimball revolves.

"We always seek the best" is so much more than just our school's motto. It is what Mr. Durrett has worked a lifetime for in order that his students might take pride in themselves and their school. Because he cares, he will not accept less.

In this day of changing values and ideas, Mr. Durrett has remained steadfast in his belief that each student of Kimball has dignity and worth. He presents the goal of excellence; it is our challenge to work for and live up to this goal.

Mr. W. P. Durrett

Principal, Justin F. Kimball High School

Assistant Principal, John T. Thornton

Before coming to Kimball in 1969, Mr. Thornton had heard that Kimball was a cold, unfriendly school. However, now that he has served as Kimball's assistant principal for two years, Mr. Thornton is more impressed by the friendly atmosphere of Kimball than by anything else.

Mr. Thornton held several goals for the past year. He has tried "to make it as smooth a year as possible . . . an atmosphere in which teachers can teach and students can learn." He has strived to stimulate Kimball students to continue their excellent showings in all activities. To help reach this goal, Mr. Thornton served as an advisor to the Student Council.

"Hard to put into words" — that's how Mr. Thornton described the differences between the two years he has served at Kimball. The 1970-1971 student body moved ahead instead of just planning to move ahead. Mr. Thornton also noted that the student body as a whole was more cooperative, and seniors showed more positive leadership.

Mrs. Wiler assists an interested caller.

Counselor's Staff

"What is your problem?" This was a frequent question the student was confronted with upon entering the counselor's office this year. Concerning themselves with social as well as academic problems, the counselors helped juniors and seniors select the courses that would best prepare them for college, while advising confused sophomores.

Serving the school in another way, Miss McShan sponsored the Troubadears for ten years and for the 1970-71 year sponsored the Student Council. Miss O'Neal served as a Driver's Education Coordinator.

Counseling requires the hard work of Mrs. Hardin.

Office Staff Has Busiest Year Ever

Amidst the ringing phones and pounding typewriters, the office staff carried on their work with a great amount of accuracy. The principal's office kept an accurate account of the finances at Kimball while the presence of each student was checked and recorded daily by the attendance office.

Aside from the daily work, a budget was made out for this year, and problems concerning scheduling were solved by the office staff. The office staff worked diligently so that our school would run more efficiently.

Working in the office keeps Mrs. Crawford's hands full.

English Department Serves Needs for Future

What is the object of English? Questions like "What difference does it make why Macbeth killed what's his face?" or "Who the devil was Herman Melville?" could be heard this year during English classes. Don't worry — the teachers had a purpose. Mrs. Albright said, "The object this year is to provide for differences in the interests and aptitudes of students at Kimball in all areas of English and to provide updated current trends and knowledge in the use of our language."

Social Studies Teachers Display Various Interests

Mrs. Kokel breaks in her new grade book by recording a history test.

Mr. Martin lectures on one of his many subjects, maybe even History.

Many varied and interesting activities of Kimball's history teachers are unknown to most of our students. Mr. Pritchett for example is the public address announcer at Sprague Field, sponsor of the Agape Christian Fellowship, and chairman of the Social Studies Department.

Though Mr. Pritchett's jobs are numerous, Miss McVean outclassed him by having one special characteristic, which was as she described, "simply being great." Miss McVean was not certain just how long she has possessed this greatness, but she was certain that her students knew about it.

Develops Our Future Leaders

Well rounded teaching techniques were a major factor in the excellence of the Social Studies Department this year. Most classes dealt not only with historical facts but also with major current social problems. History taught in these two perspectives brought new light into the daily routine of many classes. This type of teaching developed well informed students who will be the future leaders of our country and our world.

Facial expressions like Miss McVean's help get across important historical facts.

Math Progresses in Steps for the Future

Through the 70-71 school year students were found sharing computers and solving and analyzing unlimited problems. The courses offered were the same, but with the enthusiasm of Kimball's math teachers, the courses seemed new and exciting. This helped the typical student struggle through the year.

Work Hard — But Important in Math Department

Progressing from logical addition and subtraction problems to impossible equations and solutions, math has changed from junior high to high school. Our returning math teachers had their reasons for giving difficult homework. The most important reason was to teach their students to think logically in this modern world of technology.

Science Teachers Hold Unusual Interests

Back for his second year of teaching Chemistry at Kimball was Mr. Headrick, notorious for his impossible tests and numerous labs. Also returning this year was Mrs. Milke, who described herself as "middle-aged, short, dumpy, and grey-headed — BUT, I like teenagers!" Mrs. Milke claimed to have a secret ambition to be a golfer! Besides teaching physics this year, Miss Kutzer was also sponsor of the Chess Club and the Fleur de Lis — a strange combination, but it seems to have worked!

New Experiences Found in Biology Department

Mrs. Jenkins began gathering new experiences this year, not all of them pertaining to science. She began her first year of teaching as the sponsor of the Medical Careers Club. Mrs. Sheppard was also new to Kimball this year, although not new to teaching. Despite the reluctance of fainthearted students who didn't particularly care for some areas of biology, such as dissection and the smell of formaldehyde, Mrs. Sheppard joined forces with Mrs. Liljestrand and Mr. Davis, and succeeded in making biology interesting to all Kimball students.

Language Department — a New Look

Although no new language courses were added this year, the old curriculum took on a new look. New methods in the French Department included working in groups and the use of the stereo. For a better understanding of the language, French students studied a little French history and made maps to acquaint them with the geography. Innovations in the German Department included viewing the conversational German series "Guten Tag" on KERA. Oral work was given greater emphasis in Latin classes through use of the language lab and the tape recorder; thus students learned to appreciate the fact that Latin was a spoken language which not only lives in the Romance languages, but also enriches the English language.

Also newly added to the language department was Miss Ida Pina. Returning teachers included Mrs. Jana Greenway, who confesses that she has been teaching "too long." Mrs. Aurora Moreno started her teaching career in Del Rio, where she served as librarian, P.E. teacher, and drill team sponsor. Mrs. Hoeffler keeps busy with the National Honor Society and the German Club. French, sports, and the theater vie for first place in Mrs. Ivy Blair's interests. Mrs. Abbe, who sponsored the Spanish National Honor Society, and Miss West, who has studied in France, returned to Kimball for their second year.

Business Department Introduces Creative Typing

Once again this year, the well-worn keys of the typewriters were diligently pounded by students. But this year, it was often to the strains of records in Mr. Winnett's classes as his students typed to music! Business math was also taught by Mr. Alford — but not to music. Shorthand students scurried to keep pace with Mrs. Jones, who was actually talking much like an extremely slow Texan!

Home Economics Department Affects Kimball

Mrs. Blackburn chooses test questions from an unending supply.

Home Economics students receive helpful advice from Mrs. Pennington in selecting dress patterns.

Walking past the Homemaking Department this year, students discovered that it was hard to avoid the aroma of burning cakes, and the clink of sewing machines. These attempts to excel in domestic skills were ably guided by Mrs. Willems, Mrs. McLain, and Mrs. Blackburn this year as they were joined by Mrs. Pennington who courageously undertook the sponsorship of the Future Homemakers of America.

Fine Arts Department Reflects Kimball's Talent

Down on what is commonly referred to as the "Weird Wing" lurked some of Kimball's most talented students. Students in the band, chorus, and drama department attended classes throughout the year to perfect their various talents.

Last summer Mrs. Knodle travelled with National Art Educators in the Far East. From this trip she brought back new ideas which she used during the year. The talent of Mrs. Carla Wright was added as orchestra director. Mrs. Wright is also a member of the Ft. Worth Symphony.

Library Serves as Refuge for Ambitious Students

Mrs. Flores hypnotizes books to file themselves.

Everyone is familiar with the overgrown bookroom on the south wing commonly referred to as the "liberry." More students had access to the newly carpeted library this year, and they were found either to be in deep concentration of the subject matter or to be reviewing the activities of last weekend. The collection of books was enlarged, and the library expanded into the study halls where one could find various volumes between A and X and the 1950 Better Homes and Gardens.

Variation was the greatest change in the P.E. department this year. Under the supervision of Mr. Boyette and Mrs. Frazee, Kimball's P.E. classes were able to choose what they wanted to do from many different activities that were offered to them.

Though variation was prevalent in P.E. classes, things stayed much the same in R.O.T.C. and in Driver Education with Col. White and Mr. Clark finishing off another year at Kimball.

Mrs. Gannaway enjoys her work and her students.

Study Hall Teachers Aid Students in Education

Study Hall teachers this year made a great effort at trying to keep Kimball students out of trouble. Under their direction, Kimball students enjoyed a time of relaxation and studying. A quiet atmosphere was prevalent in each study hall, aiding the industrious student.

Besides providing an atmosphere for Kimball students to learn and research independently, study hall teachers were active in student activities. Mrs. Lucille Averitt aided the R.O.T.C. Sweethearts in their drills and enjoyed attending Kimball football games. Mrs. Gannaway sponsored the Dance Club and helped with their routines.

Staffers Provide Clean and Healthy Atmosphere for Students

Ernest E. Davis became the new head custodian this year at Kimball. He brought with him many new innovations and new ideas. Heading a crew of fifteen workers, Mr. Davis is responsible for assigning work details and seeing the work carried out. Kimball students, not known for their tidiness, received much help from the hard work of the staff. Each day the staff cleaned the halls and rooms of Kimball thoroughly, making Kimball a much nicer place to study.

Other fine workers at Kimball included the lunchroom staff. Each day, the lunchroom staff prepared nourishing and really tasty meals. This aided Kimball students greatly because hunger is a great distraction from studying.

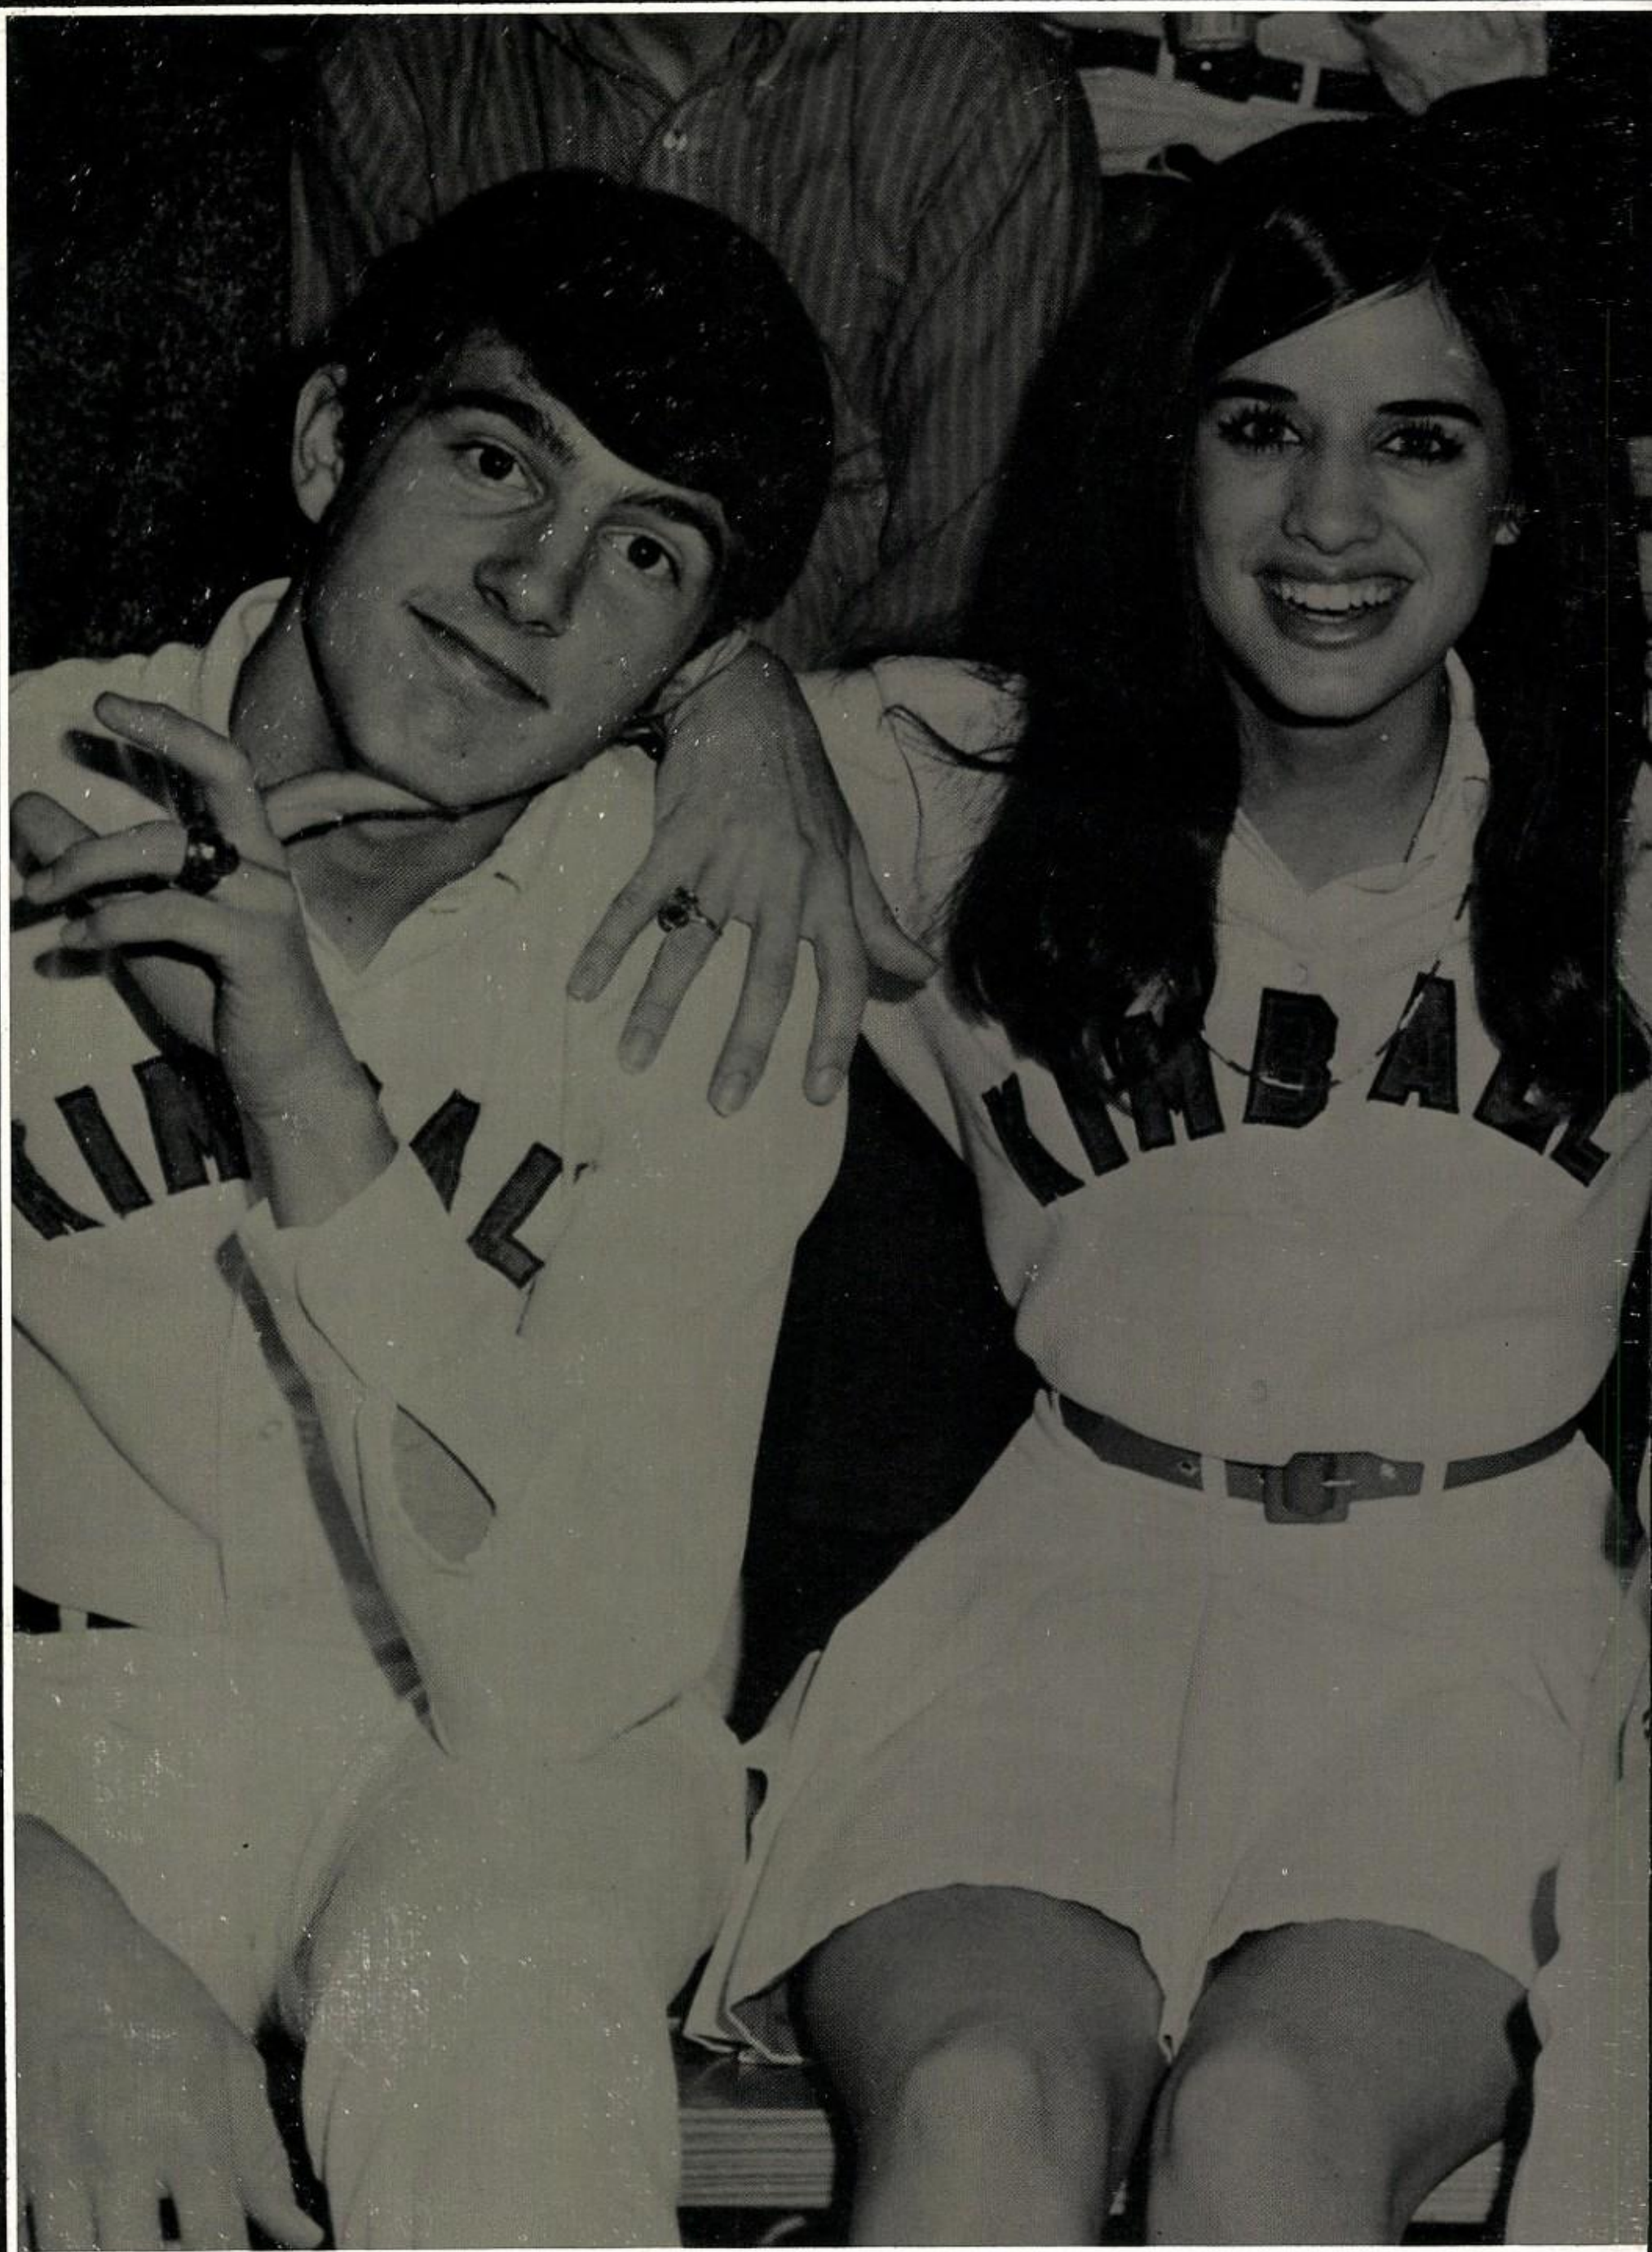

The lunchroom staff greets students with a friendly smile.

The custodians tend to sweep us off our feet.

Roundtable

Donna Short

Donna bustled about Kimball always ready to be a helper. She took the difficult, thankless jobs — just so she could serve her school. El Sol kept a full activity calendar with Donna as the president, for she planned to preside over a busy club for an entire year, not for only the first semester. As Feature Editor of the KNIGHT LIFE, Donna labored over the exact words to fit into her column — and still make it interesting to the student body. Having achieved her goal of satisfying the interests of her readers, Donna set out to pursue those interests of her own. Service to others seemed to be her main concern, for she volunteered her time as a Candy Stripper, served on the Student Council, and was active in Agape.

Jack Doak

Even though Jack displays a casual attitude, he has been a hard-working member of the 1971 Senior Class. One could walk down the hall early in the morning and find him on his way to a Concert Choir rehearsal; or long after school had been dismissed, one could find him preparing for his part in a pep assembly as a cheerleader. Along with these duties, Jack carried out the jobs of Student Council Treasurer and Dance Club member. Most importantly, as Wittiest Senior Boy, he fulfilled his responsibilities with a smile.

Joyce Pylant

This member of the 1971 Roundtable has constantly strived for improvement. As a Troubadear, she did not hesitate to offer suggestions that would improve the drill team, and as a Student Council representative, she voiced her opinions on school policy, popular or not. Joyce's persuasive speaking ability has been the result of training which earned her membership in Thespians and the National Forensic League. A fourth year French student, and participant of French Honor Society and A Jamais, Joyce has also been fluent in a foreign language. Many awards have come to Joyce because of her contributions, such as membership in the National Honor Society and a National Merit Letter of Commendation.

Randy Horton

One could not find a more respected Kimballite than Randy Horton. He has been strictly a "team" player in the three sports in which he has participated — football, basketball, and baseball. Randy's teammates showed him their admiration by electing him as one of the football captains. Outside of the field of sports, he is recognized by other students as friendly, honest, and fair. Randy, well-liked by all, has been chosen for two years as Class Favorite and as Most Popular Senior Boy in his last year at Kimball.

Nancy Neal

Perfection is a part of Nancy Neal. Her artist's skill on the piano is an asset to both the Concert Choir and the Orchestra. Throughout the year, she has provided the organ music for "Hot Time In the Old School Tonight" and the dinner music for the Rotary Club. Furthermore, she was Coach South's assistant in the playing of Christmas carols in the lunchroom. Nancy's abilities are not limited to fine arts, for she is an excellent student in all phases of schoolwork. The National Honor Society and the Spanish National Honor Society recognized her achievements and made her a member of their organizations.

Brad Millsap

Student government held Brad's time and attention during the 1970-71 school year. As president of the Student Council, he sought to DO something about problems which had been discussed by other student leaders for several years. His schoolmates elected him to this position after two years of voting him as class president. Brad was not only active in student government at Kimball, but he also held the office of president in the city-wide Hi-Line Teen Panel. Few people have held such varied interests as Brad has. He was on the All-District baseball team in '70, an actor in Dark of the Moon, and an officer of the German Club. One can easily say that the title of Most Likely to Succeed fits Brad Millsap.

Susie Buchter

Displaying her dedication to serve her fellow students as well as her school, Susie Buchter actively participated in Kimball activities. Her hard work and skillful habits earned her membership in National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, and Biology Honor Society. Her ambition and eagerness aided her in being elected Most Likely to Succeed. During the fall, Susie performed as a Troubadear, and at the same time made her most valuable contribution to Kimball. This contribution was to the EXCALIBUR Staff, where she tried to make the 1971 EXCALIBUR a book of which any Kimballite could be proud.

Gene Hanson

Known for his good attitude and dependability, Gene Hanson has served others as a Study Hall aide and as a member of Red Cross. He made further contributions to his school by participating in athletic contests. A year-round ball player, he joined the American Legion's baseball team before school started, and then he changed sports and met the challenges of football. Versatility is indeed a characteristic of Gene, for when the season slipped into one of rapid-action basketball, he was active on the court.

Bruce Worth

As an editor of the KNIGHT LIFE, this member of the 1971 Roundtable tried to help produce a paper that was popular as well as journalistically correct. To do so, he spent time during the summer preparing for the first publication. Also in the summer, Bruce attended Executive Board meetings of the Student Council to speak out for the members of the paper staff. During school, he spent the last two hours of his day on sports — sixth period learning cheers for the team, and seventh period practicing for the tennis team. His outgoing personality brought him the honor of being Friendliest Senior Boy.

Patty Rollings

Patty has been an avid sports fan, as both a spectator and player. She gave her support "from the bench" in her junior year as a Troubadour, then in her senior year as a cheerleader. Any Kimball sporting event was attended by Patty, whether it was required for her to do so or not. Lettering herself, Patty has been a member of the girls' swim team. Aside from electing her to the position of cheerleader, her class voted her in her sophomore year to such honors as class secretary, homecoming duchess, and class favorite. In her senior year at Kimball, she was again chosen a class favorite, Most Popular Senior Girl.

Sandy Spray

Always sparkling and bright, Sandy has brought fun and creativity into Kimball organizations. As Troubadear spirit chairman, careful planning and much secrecy were the basis of morale boosters for the various athletic teams. Sandy supervised her crew of spirit committees in the decorating of houses at night, the serving of lunch to the football team, and the arresting of the players from class. Her artistic talent was needed in the Art Club as well, where she served as secretary. The post of National Honor Society Secretary was also held by Sandy, who made the inductions come off with style.

Robert Heflin

Robert Heflin has been a dedicated Kimballite in his athletic and spiritual endeavors. He displayed confidence and skill when executing plays as a defensive lineman or back. In addition to carrying out the physical exertion characteristic of any letterman, he helped to keep the team close in thought, as president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Agape meetings were always on Robert's Tuesday and Friday agenda, as he was an active member. In the fall of 1970, he was inducted into the National Honor Society, a sign of his high standards.

Activities

August Kimball Welcomes New Knights

Traditionally, the day before school starts is reserved for orientation of new students. This year's orientation may have started some new traditions. The Student Council contributed the "I Care" theme, intended to boost school pride, and the "Big Brother" program, in which Student Council members assisted sophomore homerooms. Hopefully, the fight that erupted when a sophomore boy infuriated senior boys by stepping on the school seal will not become a tradition. At a later date, club representatives encouraged sophomores to join their organizations.

Sophomores await the beginning of their first day at Kimball.

Seniors Glenn Denny, Jimmy Morgan, Hubert Taylor, Greg Person, Jeff Fansler, and Brad Peters protect the Kimball seal from heavy feet.

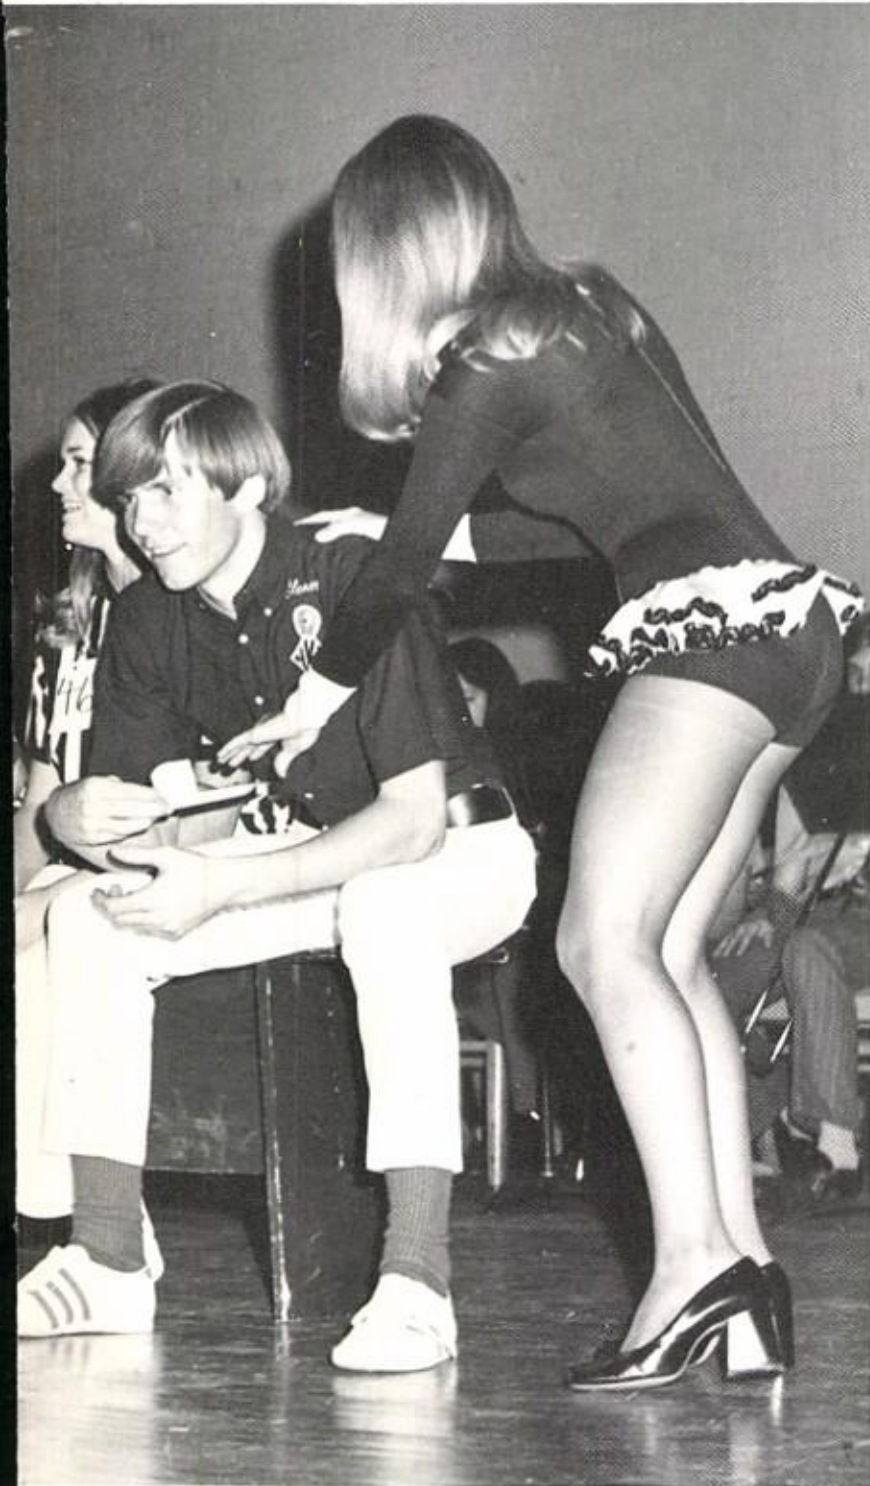

Elaine VanDine, captain of the Troubadears, addresses sophomores.

Lisa Jacobson, Big Brother (?) to room 142, wears her number proudly.

September Pep Assemblies — A Three Ring Circus

Short skirts seem to affect Glenn Denny's mind.

Football captain Ernie Segovia doesn't look too upset about his arrest by Troubs Sally Dacus, Margaret Moncrief, and Libby Mack.

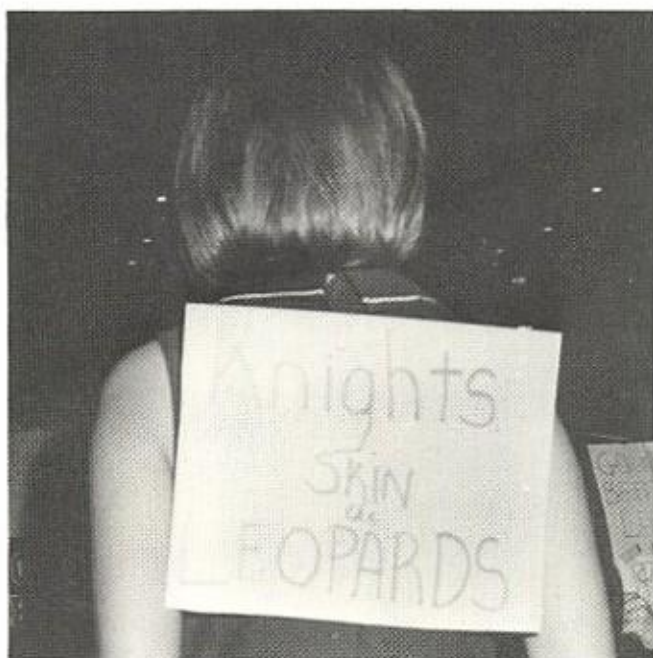

K-I-M-B-A-L-L cheerleaders keep spirit high.

Kimball's pep assemblies were a little like a three ring circus; so much was going on at once that it was hard to see it all. While the cheerleaders were trying to lead yells, the senior boys and the sophomore boys contended for the spotlight. Later in the assembly an entertaining skit was provided by the cheerleaders.

Spirit Boosted by Many Organizations

Randy Davis, Jay Howard, Jerry Wilson, Randy Horton, Charlie Clemmons, and Jackie Landess work on the right mental attitude for the Carter game.

Signs worn by the Troubadears ward off Adamson Leopards.

Many organizations assisted the cheerleaders this year. Rousing music was provided by the band. Performances were given by the Dance Club, the Troubadears, and the majorettes. Fleur de Lis added moral support, and the Speech Department helped with a skit. Several clubs prepared the traditional victory apples. Kimball's spirit became colossal and stupendous through its circus-like pep assemblies.

Members of the Speech Department Shanan Harrell and Bobby Forman add their talent to the Sunset pep assembly.

Fleur-de-Lis Debbie Hoffmeister and Sharon Massengale listen attentively to the band.

With Fall Comes — State Fair Day 1970

Juniors pause for a picture before making their way down the Midway.

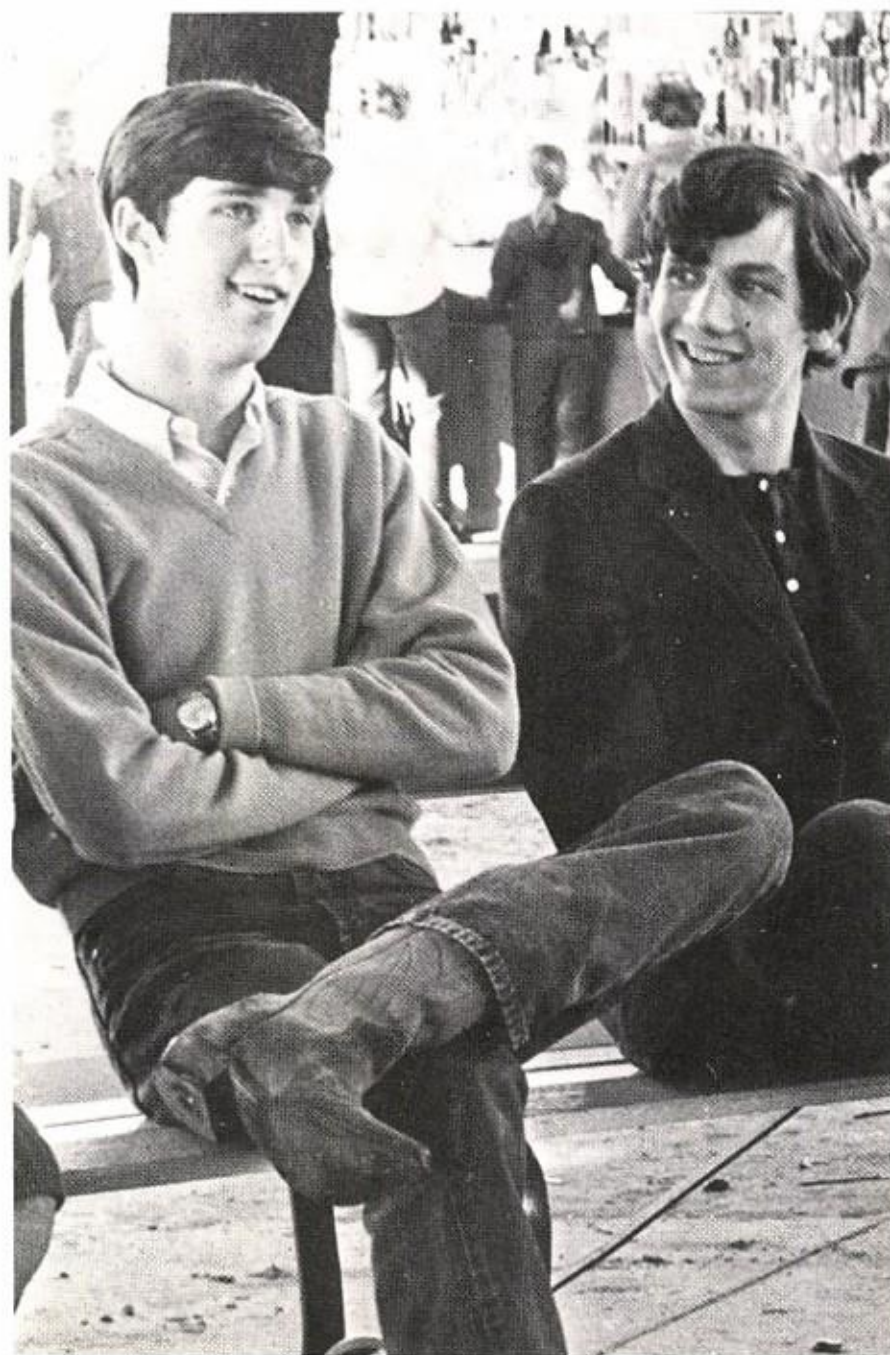

Debbie Ayers and Kathy Hennis seem to be lost?

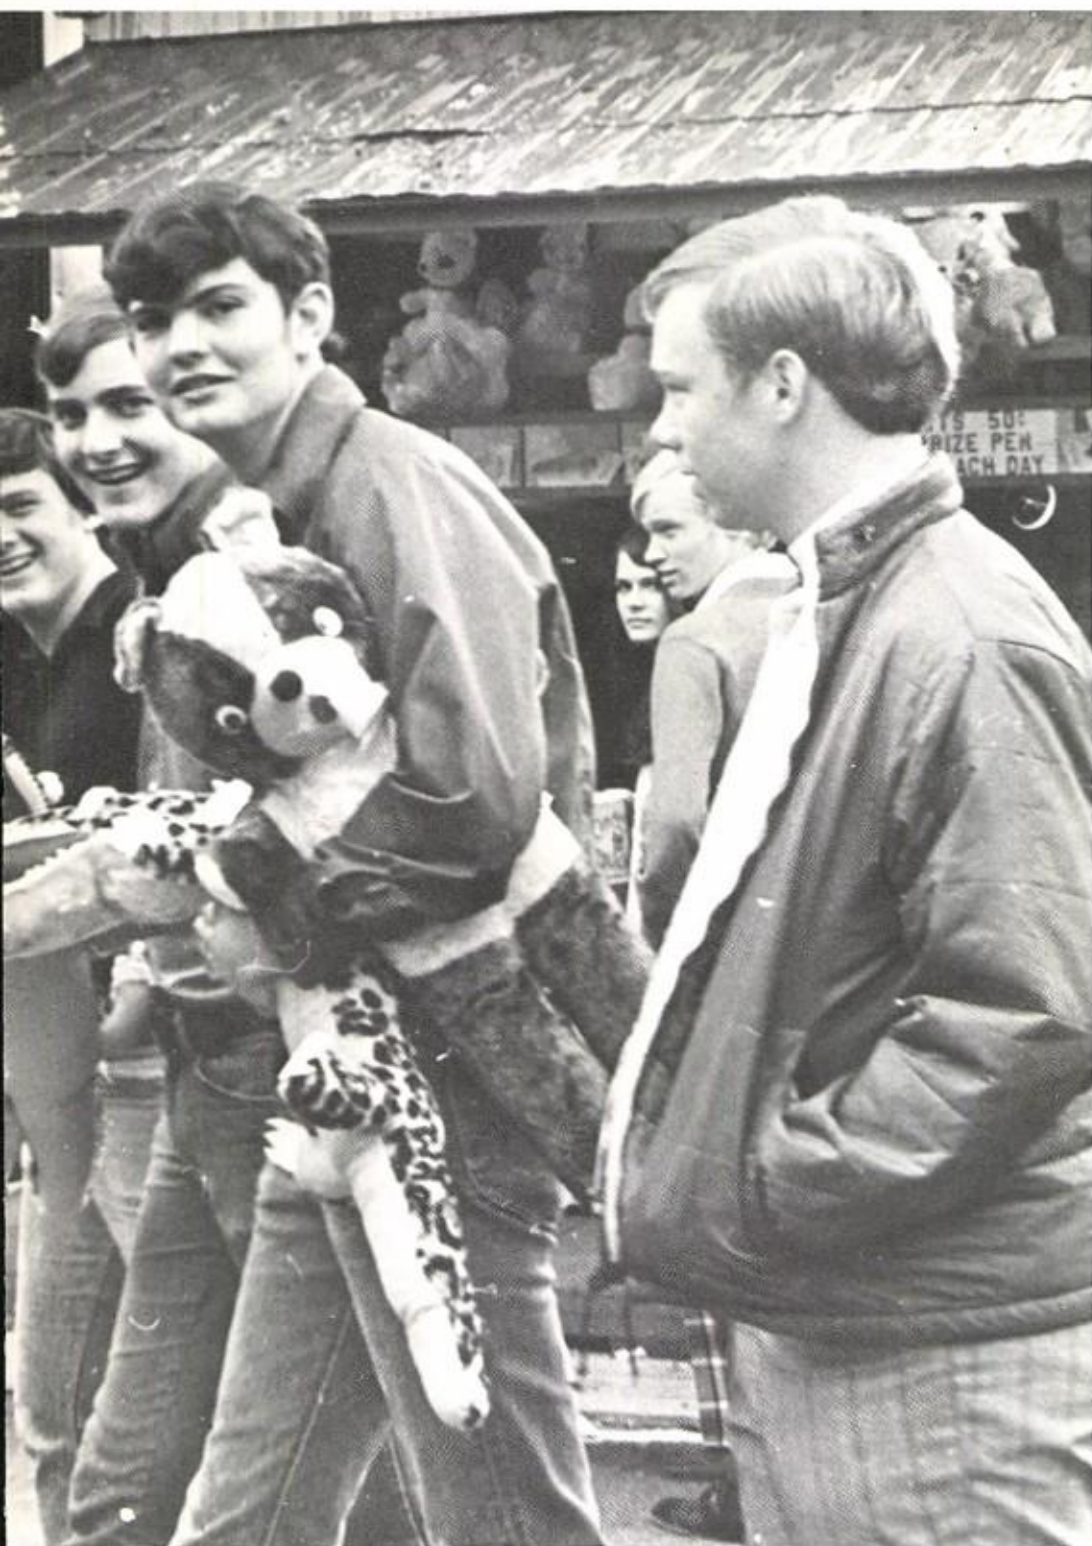

Fair Day was gladly welcomed this year as it has been in the past. Aside from the fact it was the first break of the fall season, it gave students a chance to have fun and learn too.

To some, the Midway provided excitement with its rides, sideshows, and games of chance. Here students could either increase their collections of stuffed animals or deplete their billfold of money, depending upon their skill.

There were also many shows and exhibits to see along with the regular attractions. One of the favorite shows of the students was the Automobile Building with its new cars and music.

Tommy Poitevent and Joe Dishner discuss the fair as they rest.

Seniors Charles Mahoney, Brad Peters, and Hubert Taylor show off their souvenirs as Andy Ainley looks on.

Traditions Open Homecoming 1971

Walking through the halls, one could hear sounds of excitement Homecoming week. Traditions were relived in the decorating of doors and the voting for Homecoming queen. Then finally the big day came. Along with the annual appearance of Sir Justin, Mr. Durrett dismissed the Knights to a night that was remembered by many.

November Armistice Day Salutes American War Veterans

Student Council President Brad Millsap tells the story of the unknown soldier.

Armistice Day always brings a feeling of pride to Kimball's students because they can show their appreciation to all of the people that gave their lives fighting for our country. The assembly is always highlighted by the performance of the Royal Lancers and the story of the unknown soldier. This assembly has become a tradition at Kimball, and it is always appreciated by the students and faculty.

R.O.T.C. cadets raise the flag as the American Soldiers did on Iwo Jima.

Choir Sings Out for the Thanksgiving Assembly

The Concert Choir sings an arrangement of "Alleluia."

Patriotism was the main theme of this year's Thanksgiving Assembly. By combining the Concert Choir with the String Orchestra, the students at Kimball received an excellent music program. The Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Bryan, did a medley of patriotic songs about America. The program was concluded with a composition from the Orchestra which was reminiscent of the Thanksgiving Season. This song, along with the others from the Choir, seemed to leave the students in a good spirit for the coming holidays.

Wayne Henderson plays a trumpet solo for the Orchestra.

NHS Recognizes Kimball Students

Once again this year the National Honor Society presented an induction ceremony for its new members. Only a very small percentage of the student body may be chosen for the highest honor of the school. They are chosen by their teachers from a larger number of nominees. The requirements for the Honor Society are difficult and very selective.

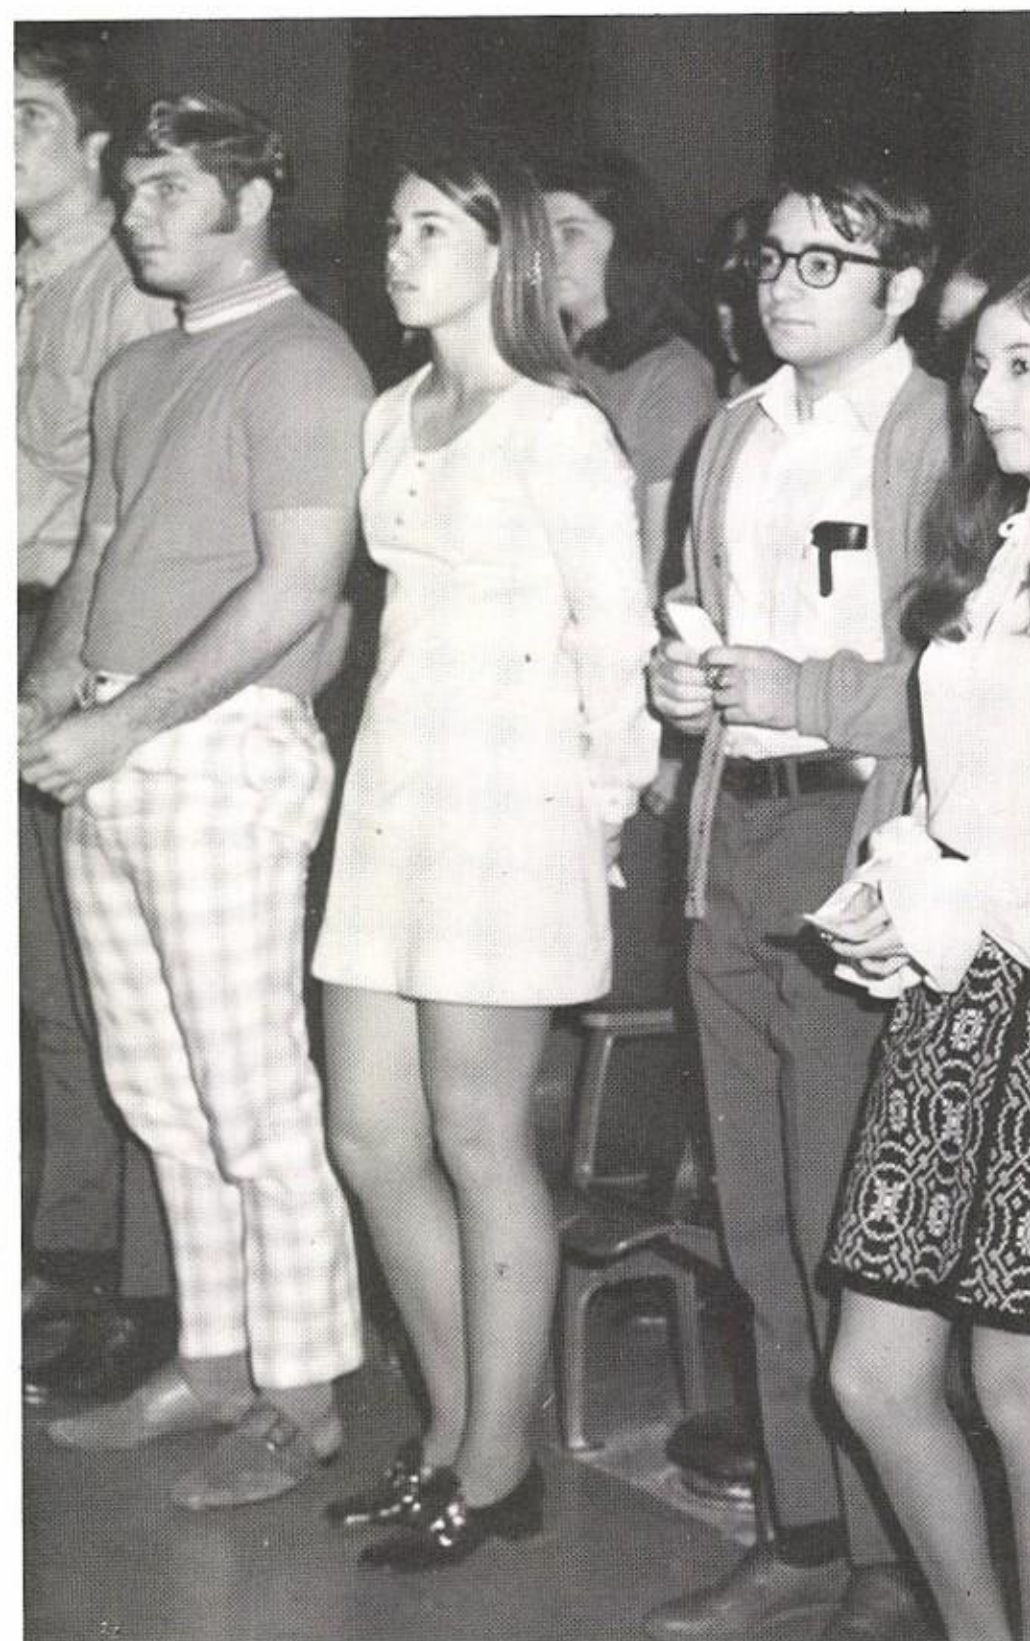

The NHS officers gave speeches on character, scholarship, citizenship, and service, and Brad Mill-sap, President of the Student Council, spoke on the qualities of leadership. Each inductee was given a membership card, signed the roster, and repeated the NHS oath.

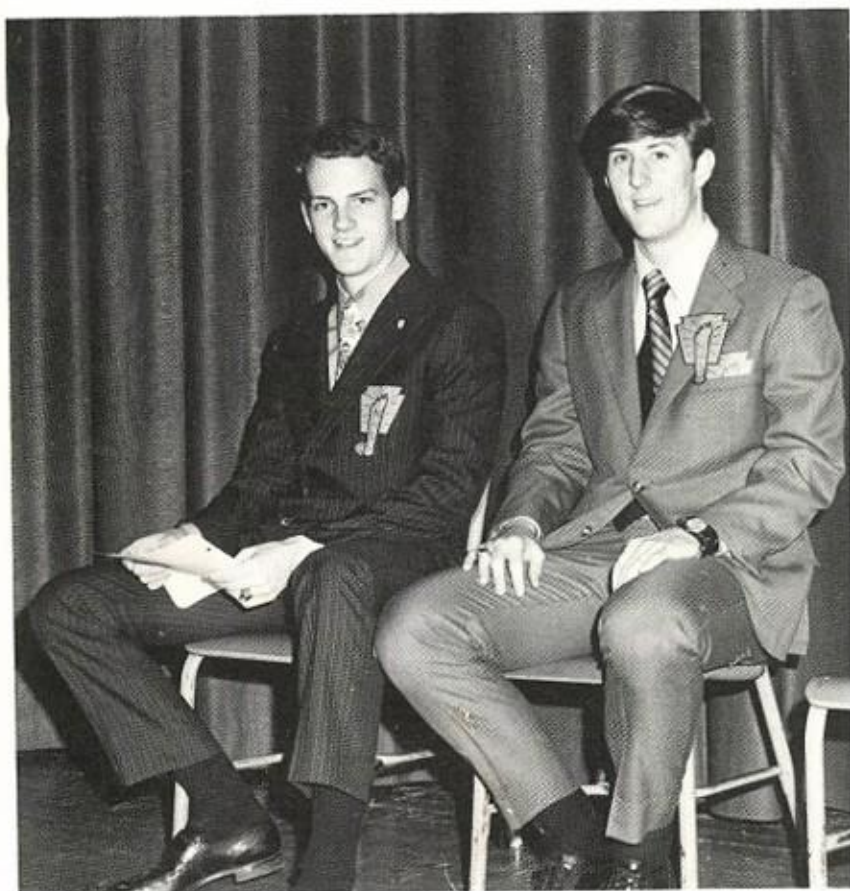

Bobby Aydelotte and his parents enjoy refreshments following the induction.

Dark of the Moon

Suspenseful Drama

The drama department's first production of this year was the dramatic play, Dark of the Moon. Under the direction of Miss Kathleen Krebbs, this "bewitching" story was presented in the Kimball auditorium on the evenings of December 3 and 4.

The play concerned the tale of a young witchboy, John, and his endeavors to win the love of Barbara Allen, and finally to become a mortal man. The cast added much to the play by way of the Conjure Woman's use of her very own silver glittered hair and our Student Council President's platinum blonde wig and whiskers. These and many more unacknowledged contributions made Dark of the Moon an excellent production.

Christmas 1970 — A Time to Give

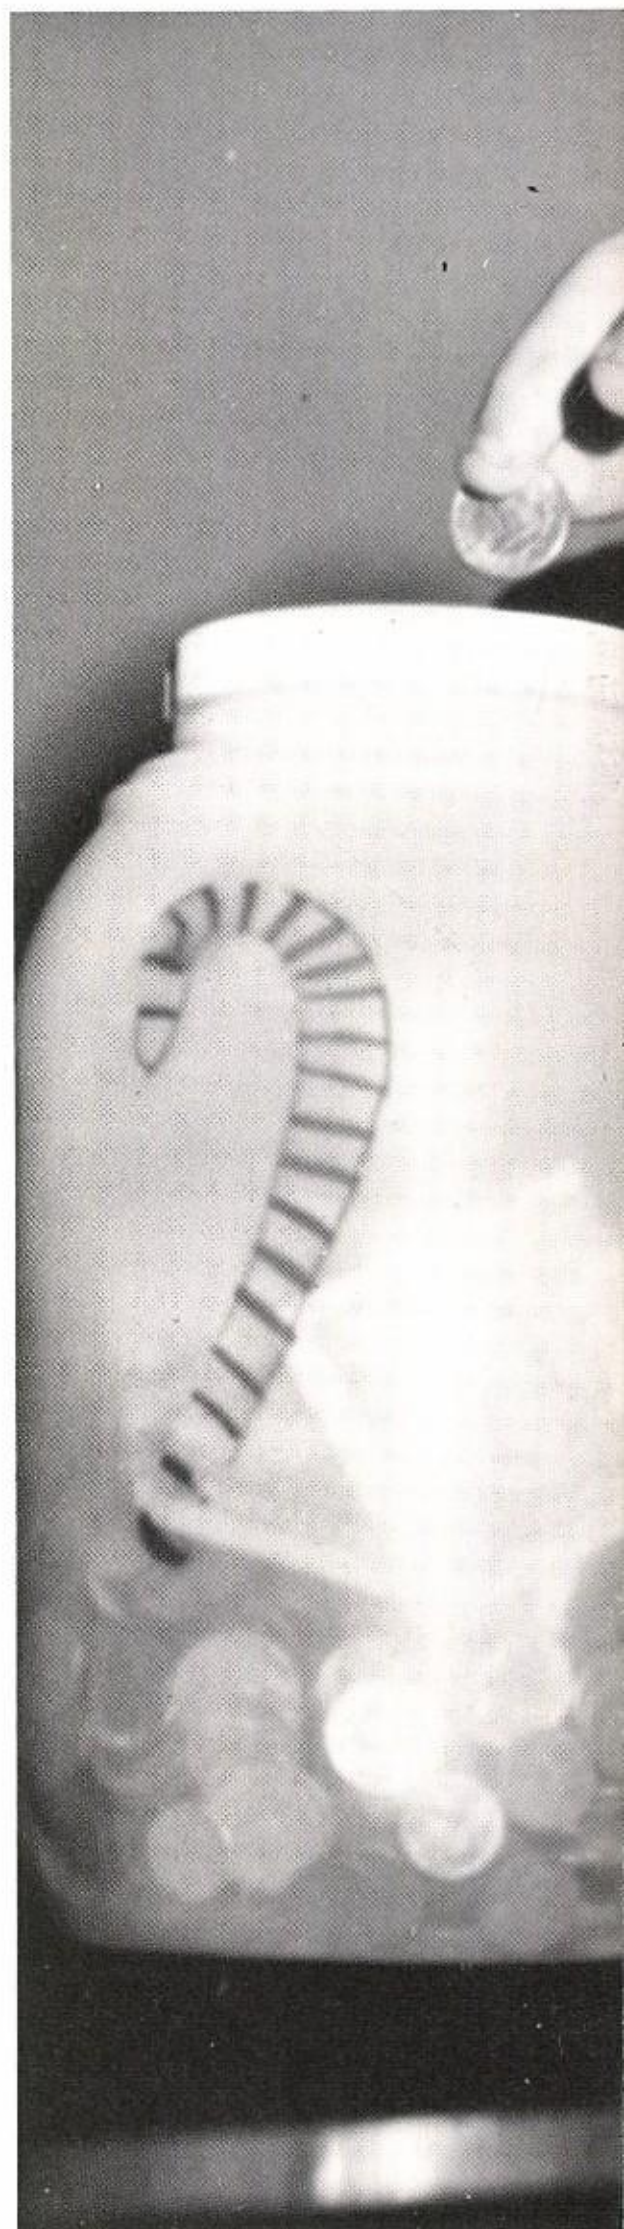

Boston snow, Santa, Coach South, and organ music in the lunch room are just a few of the sights and sounds students will remember about Christmas 1970. Along with the various club activities, a Christmas dance was held and the annual Christmas Assembly was presented by the music department. The Chorale, under the direction of Mr. Richard Bryan, presented several choral selections including "This Day A Child Is Born" and "We Wish You A Merry Christmas" complete with figgy newtons. The Band also performed "Masque," "Carol of the Drum," and joined the full Concert Choir in conclusion with "Carol Fantasy." Coach South helped to get students in the Yuletide spirit with his carol singing and collecting of money for the Salvation Army.

Surprise and happiness were the reactions of Pat Burke as she was claimed Military Sweetheart. She was chosen by the members of the Corps as the most outstanding of all the sweethearts from each unit.

Seniors Hit Big Time With Odd Couple

At Kimball, as elsewhere, The Odd Couple was highly successful. Seniors hit the big time with a Neal Simon comedy that has seen Broadway, movie theaters, and finally the living rooms of America as a television show. If success can be measured in dollars, which is what the seniors were primarily interested in, then the play yielded approximately eighteen hundred dollars worth of success.

Part of the play's success was attributed to the fact that students could miss two hours of school to see it on Thursday, January 28, 1971. This may have been true, but Odd Couple met with equal success with a nearly full house on Friday night.

What resulted when neurotic Mr. Clean, Felix Ungar, moved in with Oscar Madison, who would have been happy in the city dump, was a hilarious insight into human nature. Largely responsible for the hilarity and the success was the director, Miss Kathleen Krebbs.

Spanish Fiesta — Profitable Good Times

For the past few years, El Sol's Spanish Fiesta has been the highlight of its many activities. The money the club raised with the Fiesta was used for various service projects, including relief for the earthquake victims in Peru and club scholarships to Saltillo for the summer. While raising the money, the Pan American members managed to have a good time and also provide fun for everyone else. The many booths and activities provided a carnival atmosphere. These included the best booth, the Hospital, and the top money-earning booth, the Flower Booth.

As the end of the Fiesta approached, the Queen and King were announced, along with runners-up. They earned their royal places by begging a penny a vote. Hellen Tatom was crowned queen by Cathy May, last year's winner, and Bill McMillan was crowned king.

Mardi Gras Greets Kimball With Confetti And Streamers

Once again this year, the Mardi Gras came to Kimball complete with confetti and balloons. The French market place was decked out with flower stalls, and homemade beads as well as a sidewalk cafe where authentic French delicacies were served. A guillotine provided a vent for any pent-up emotions, or as an alternative, couples could be married, complete with flowers and a certificate. Knights Go From City to Regional Playoffs

After a narrow win over Roosevelt in double overtime, the district crown belonged to the Knights, who then challenged TJ for the city title. The city game was mainly a defensive one, for Fitzhugh kept Marcellus from scoring his usual quota of points as well as scoring 14 points himself. Also on the defense, Hanson scored 12 points, and managed to clear the way for Jones to make a total of 23 points. The Knights trounced TJ with a final score of 79-61.

On to College Station for the Knights! The bus with the coach, players, and managers left for College Station on Friday, March 5th, followed shortly by hundreds of KK fans. The Saturday morning game was a tense one for all Knights, as Poly was favored to win. However, at the half the Knights were ahead by six points. The Parrots rallied to narrow the Kimball winning margin to three points. Their effort was to no avail, as the combination of the cheering section led by Mr. Durrett and the high scoring of Chesney and Lacy was too much for them to cope with. Coach Brown and his team pulled forth a 13 point victory with a score of 54-41.

Andy Jones gets the shot away between the TJ Rebels for two points.

The night game proved to be a different story. Even though Jones held 6'7" Cy-Fair senior Jerry Mercer to four points, the Dunlap twins were too much to handle. Together they scored a total of 28 points. KK fans were still yelling "We're #1!" when only three minutes in the last period showed on the scoreboard, for the Kimball team had led during most of the game. But Cy-Fair came on strong in the last minutes and Kimballites could hardly believe their eyes when the scoreboard read 66-51 at the sound of the final buzzer.

Symposium Has Large Dallas Turnout

At Kimball's first Science Symposium, eighteen speakers from universities and businesses gathered at Kimball for eight hours to inform over 300 students from area junior high and high schools about their specialized science field. All speaking engagements were arranged by Larry Chew, including the special lecture by N.A.S.A. Flight Director Gerald Griffin. This lecture was entitled "Apollo 14 and Beyond," and upon its completion, interested students asked such questions as "Are there plans for trips to the outer planets of Uranus and Pluto?"; "Will women accompany men on future flights?"; and "What kind of fuel will be used in future space travel?" By providing answers to these and many more questions, Mr. Griffin helped to finish an informative day.

April My Fair Lady Brings Laughter and Applause

Continuous applause and laughter was the reaction of students and parents to the 1970 production of My Fair Lady. Directed by Mr. Bryan with assistance from student director Shelley Hamrick, the musical was a success the three nights it ran. The members of the orchestra directed by Mr. Bobby Thomas provided the background music for the play.

The story of an uneducated cockney girl trying to learn the rules of proper etiquette from an impatient professor, My Fair Lady received such praises as "Great . . . fantastic production . . . best of the year!" Many hours of hard work were put into the play as the members of the Concert Choir strived to make it the best musical ever produced by Kimball. Participants in the play had to cope with such troubles as broken props, missing costumes, sleepless nights, sore throats, a rain and hail storm, and Mr. Bryan's "HYPER" moods. But . . . through all the problems, troubles, and laughter My Fair Lady was one of the best liked plays in Kimball's history.

E-Day — the Final Climax

After a year of being questioned "What color is the cover?" "Who is the dedicatee?" and "Did HE make Roundtable?" the annual staff finally presented the 1970 EXCALIBUR. Juniors and seniors poured into the auditorium to get a glimpse of the annual; then they rushed back to their homerooms to get their own EXCALIBUR. The autograph party that evening left a multitude of Coke (?) cans, Bic pens, and potato chip bags to add to the atmosphere of the parking lot.

Ten months later, after endless hours of making layouts, remaking layouts, and writing copy, the final March deadline was greeted with relief by the staff.

Journalists Keep Knights Informed

Journalism students were kept busy this year with the publication of the Knight Life. With the purchase of the paper, Knights could be clued in on forthcoming events, and they were able to read featured editorials written by the staff.

Combining to form the Knight Life Staff were thirty members, eight editors and twenty-two reporters, with the addition of a sophomore photographer, John Taylor. Editor-in-chief, Linda McKee, said, "He was a real asset to the staff; the pictures had a more professional look." The editors and staff worked all hours, on school days as well as weekends, to make 1970-1971 Knight Life a success.

Quill and Scroll Honors Journalists

Don Harris, self-proclaimed president of Quill and Scroll, announces the arrival of a new KNIGHT LIFE.

Journalism students who possess a high scholastic average and show exceptional work on one of the school's two publications received the honor of being selected for membership in Quill and Scroll. The staff of both the EXCALIBUR and KNIGHT LIFE were eligible for membership and were recommended by their sponsors. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Harvey, this year's club presented Mr. Durrett with a certificate. The award was given to show the club's appreciation for Mr. Durrett's interest in the two school publications.

Controversy in the Student Council

MISS JOAN McSHAN
Sponsor

Student Council officers and representatives, representing their fellow classmates, strived to make Kimball one of the best schools in Dallas. Through their many desires, they came upon many problems. Subjects such as dress code, the school constitution, and the effectiveness of the Council created active discussions.

President of the student body, Brad Millsap, showed representatives that students of a school can accomplish many things when they apply themselves to their activities, whether they concern moneymaking projects or volunteer work.

Brad Millsap conducts the discussion while Jack Doak listens from behind.

Developing leadership qualities was the main purpose of the Distributive Education Club. Even though DECA was a newly established club this year, it did not lack in the enthusiasm and participation in activities. Members sold combs for Prudential Insurance, and they received profits which they used for their Christmas Party. As a final conclusion to a year of hard work, they participated in area and state competition with other schools in the Youth Leadership Areas.

Sharing of Faith Promoted by Agape

In the Spring of 1970, a group of students and teachers formed the AGAPE Morning Christian Fellowship as a means of bringing together people who shared a belief in Christ. AGAPE provided Christian fellowship and spiritual growth for its members and served as a means for members to learn about Christ. Tuesday mornings were devoted to a worship service with a guest speaker, and Friday mornings were used for the studying of the Bible, singing, the sharing of faith and personal experiences, and for praying. AGAPE members tried to promote Christian activities in the school and community.

Art Club

Stimulates Interest in Art

Making posters for activities such as the Science Symposium, Odd Couple, and Dark of the Moon was just one of the school-oriented projects of the Art Club. Field trips were taken to the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts, Las Manos Gallery, and to S.M.U. for a painter's exhibit. These outside activities helped members to attain an awareness of what is happening in art today and to stimulate their interest in art. During the Christmas season, the Art Club hung ornaments on the foyer Christmas tree, made posters for the dance, and collected toys for underprivileged children in West Dallas.

Aided by its sponsors, officers, and committee chairmen, the Science Club planned educational programs and activities. But dancing wasn't their only occupation. Club members also attended productions of "Peter Pan" at the Dallas Theater Center and "West Side Story" at S.M.U. Concert Choir

Hard Work Wins Recognition

Kimball's Concert Choir grew in musical ability not only through hard work in the classroom, but also through strenuous rehearsals outside of class. You could hear music as early as seven in the morning and sometimes later than that at night. The effort they put into their singing was evident not only in their regular school performances, but also in various concerts throughout Dallas. Somehow the choir found time to relax with a fall "barn" party, a Christmas party, and a party in the spring.

This year's choir was no longer one massive choir. It consisted of two groups, Chorale and Choraliers. The Chorale was a more advanced group that sang college literature; Choraliers sang regular high school music. Both choirs sang together, with the Chorale occasionally singing a few separate selections. The two choirs were supplemented by a folk singing group, the New Tyme Syngers.

Under the guidance of their hard-working director, Mr. Richard Bryan, Kimball's Concert Choir strived to be the best in Dallas.

Troubs Enhance Half-Time for Fans

This year began differently from past years for the Troubadears as long before sunrise many sleepy girls found their way to summer practice at the community room of the Tyler St. Methodist Church. The product of this devoted practice was seen in football half times, which were varied by different field formations such as circles, rectangles, and squares. These formations also included a USA which was highlighted by ninety-five girls scrounging in their boots for the featured scarves which were used in a routine to "America the Beautiful." Through much hard work, and even more enjoyment, the 1970-1971 Troubadears may count this year as a successful one.

Fleur-de-Lis await the signal to flip on the "criss-cross" card stunt.

Most pep squads suffice with attending football games and stop there. The Fleur-de-Lis not only attended football games, they had a wide variety of card stunts. The American flag waved bravely, and the other side was greeted with a red and blue HJ at each game. A visual cheer was given with "Go KK." A rippling purple and white S, a gold crown, and a grinning jack-o-lantern were specially prepared for the Homecoming Game. Their red and navy uniforms also brightened pep assemblies and several basketball games. Enthusiastic girls gave that little bit extra that made the Fleur-de-Lis so much better.

Knights Begin Winning Season Against Owls

Kimball started this year with a strong win over Garland. On the third play of the season, Dwayne Fontaine hauled in a short pass along the right sideline and raced 76 yards for the first Kimball score of the season. After Kimball jumped to a fourteen point lead, the Garland Owls came back to tie the game. In the third quarter, the Knight offense sprang into life. It was not until the fourth quarter, however, that the Knights scored two more touchdowns to defeat Garland 26-14.

After beginning the season successfully, Kimball ran into the tough Lake Highland Wildcats.

Knights End Up 2-1 in Preseason Play

Lake Highlands began the scoring with a field goal and a touchdown in the first quarter. There was no scoring until the third quarter when the Wildcats scored on a one yard plunge. The Knights finally scored in the fourth quarter but missed the extra point.

Next on the list of preseason games was the Richardson Eagles. The Eagles scored twice in the first half and Kimball scored once, making the score 14-6. Then Tony Jackson went out of the game with a sprained ankle just before the half. Gary Johnson guided the Knights to another score with thirteen seconds left in the half, making the score 14-12. Richardson came back in the first series of the third quarter to kick a field goal. Then the Knights scored one last touchdown to win the game 19-17.

To begin district play, the Knights defeated the Mustangs. The action was on the ground with Robert Heflin gaining 86 yards. The Knights scored two quick touchdowns in the second quarter and held off a potent Mustang offense. The final Kimball score was made in the last quarter by Jackie Landess, bringing the final score to Kimball 21 and Roosevelt 0.

In a "do or die" game with Carter, again the Kimball team managed to pull through. The Cowboys scored first on a field goal, but the Knights came back with a touchdown. Going into halftime, however, the Knights were behind 10-7. In the second quarter, the Kimball offense came alive after the recovery of a fumble. The Knights ground out three second-half touchdowns to win by a score of 28-10.

In the fifth consecutive win of the year, the Knights shut out Adamson 34-0. Landess scored the first touchdown of the night, getting seven of the 274 yards Kimball accumulated. Dwayne Fontaine scored next on the ground and then caught a pass for six yards and a touchdown. Moments later, Fontaine again ran for a touchdown. Randy Horton ended the scoring by capping the last drive with a 1-yard plunge.

Homecoming Game Again a Success

On Fair Day, the Knights mauled the North Dallas Bulldogs 41-0. The Knights recovered two fumbles and intercepted three passes. Heflin scored the first two touchdowns followed by a six yard touchdown run by Fontaine. In the third quarter, Jackson hit Fontaine for seven yards and a touchdown. At the end of the third quarter, Jackson scored on a bootleg around right end. In the fourth quarter, Steve Hill got the final score from the one yard line.

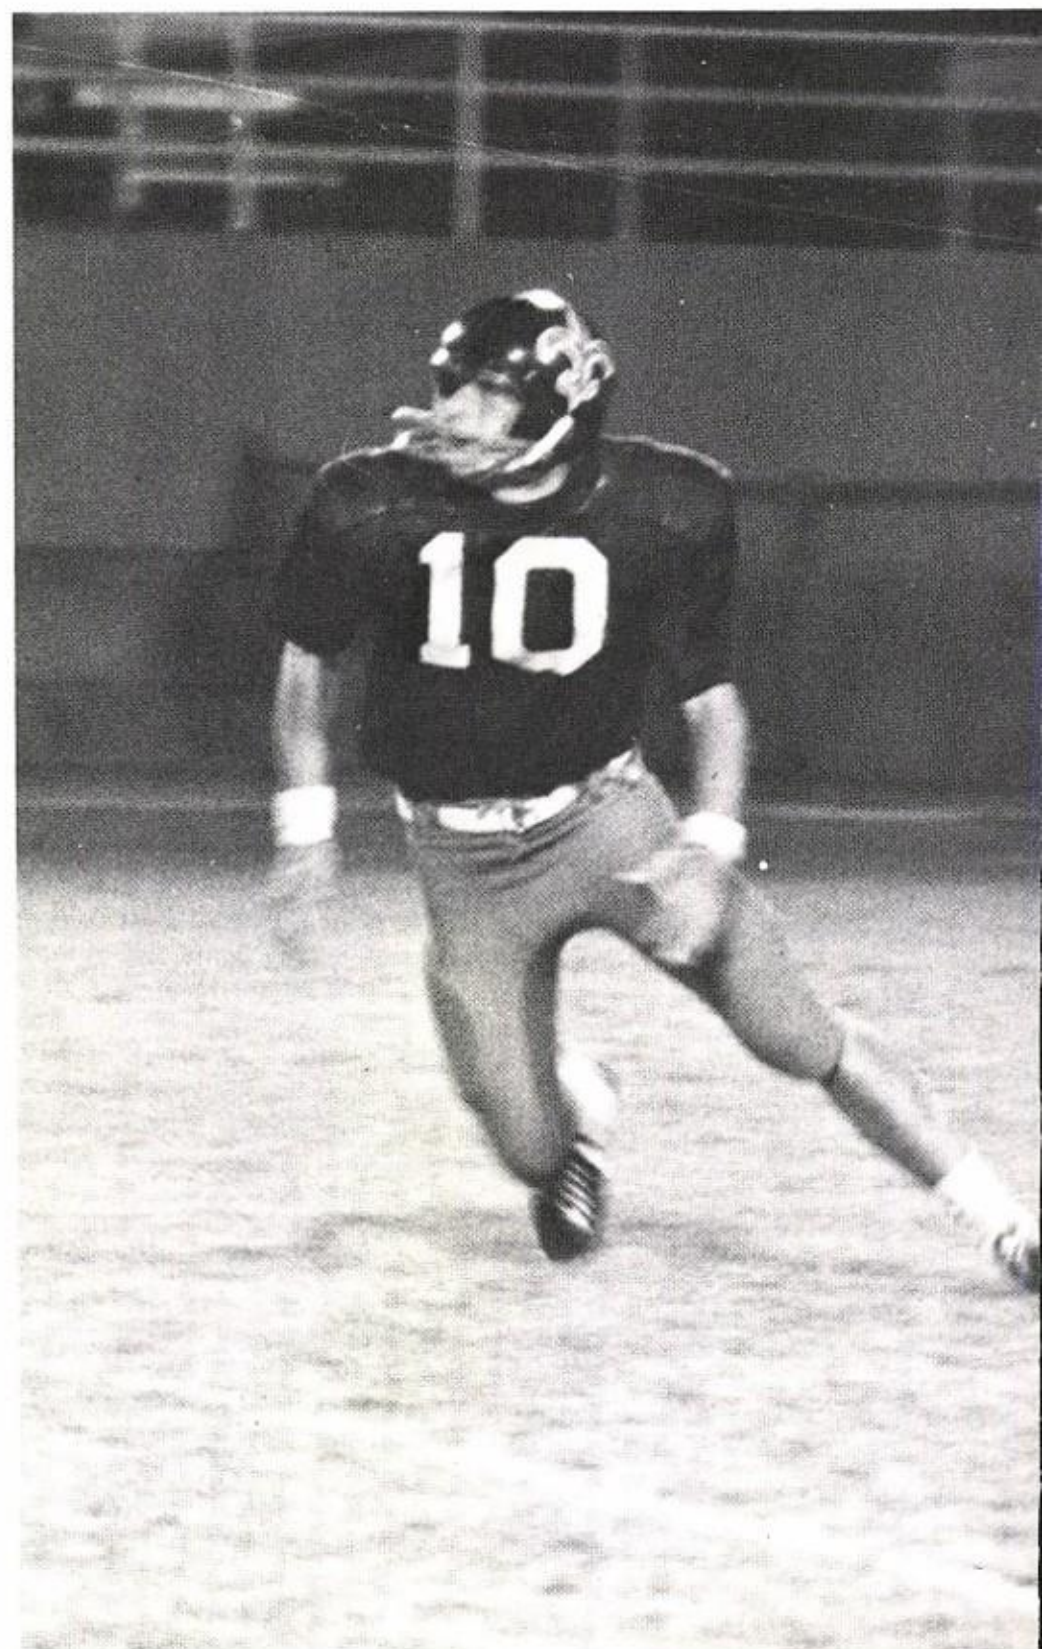

Homecoming this year was a happy occasion because Kimball beat Sunset 21-0. After a closely fought first half, Kimball led by only seven points. In the third quarter, however, the Knights managed to put together two quick touchdowns, ending the scoring for both teams.

Kimball Is Handed Its First District Defeat by Woodrow

Although Kimball was undefeated in district play, Woodrow Wilson ended the winning streak. In the first quarter, each team scored once. Woodrow Wilson scored again just before halftime, and the Knights were behind 21-14 at the half. The Wildcats boosted their lead to 35-14. Then Kimball came raging back, going 85 yards in three plays and a touchdown. The Knights scored once again in less than five minutes. Their final chance at victory was stopped when Tony Jackson was trapped for a safety. The final score was Woodrow Wilson 37 and Kimball 28.

Knights End Season in the Mud With S.O.C.

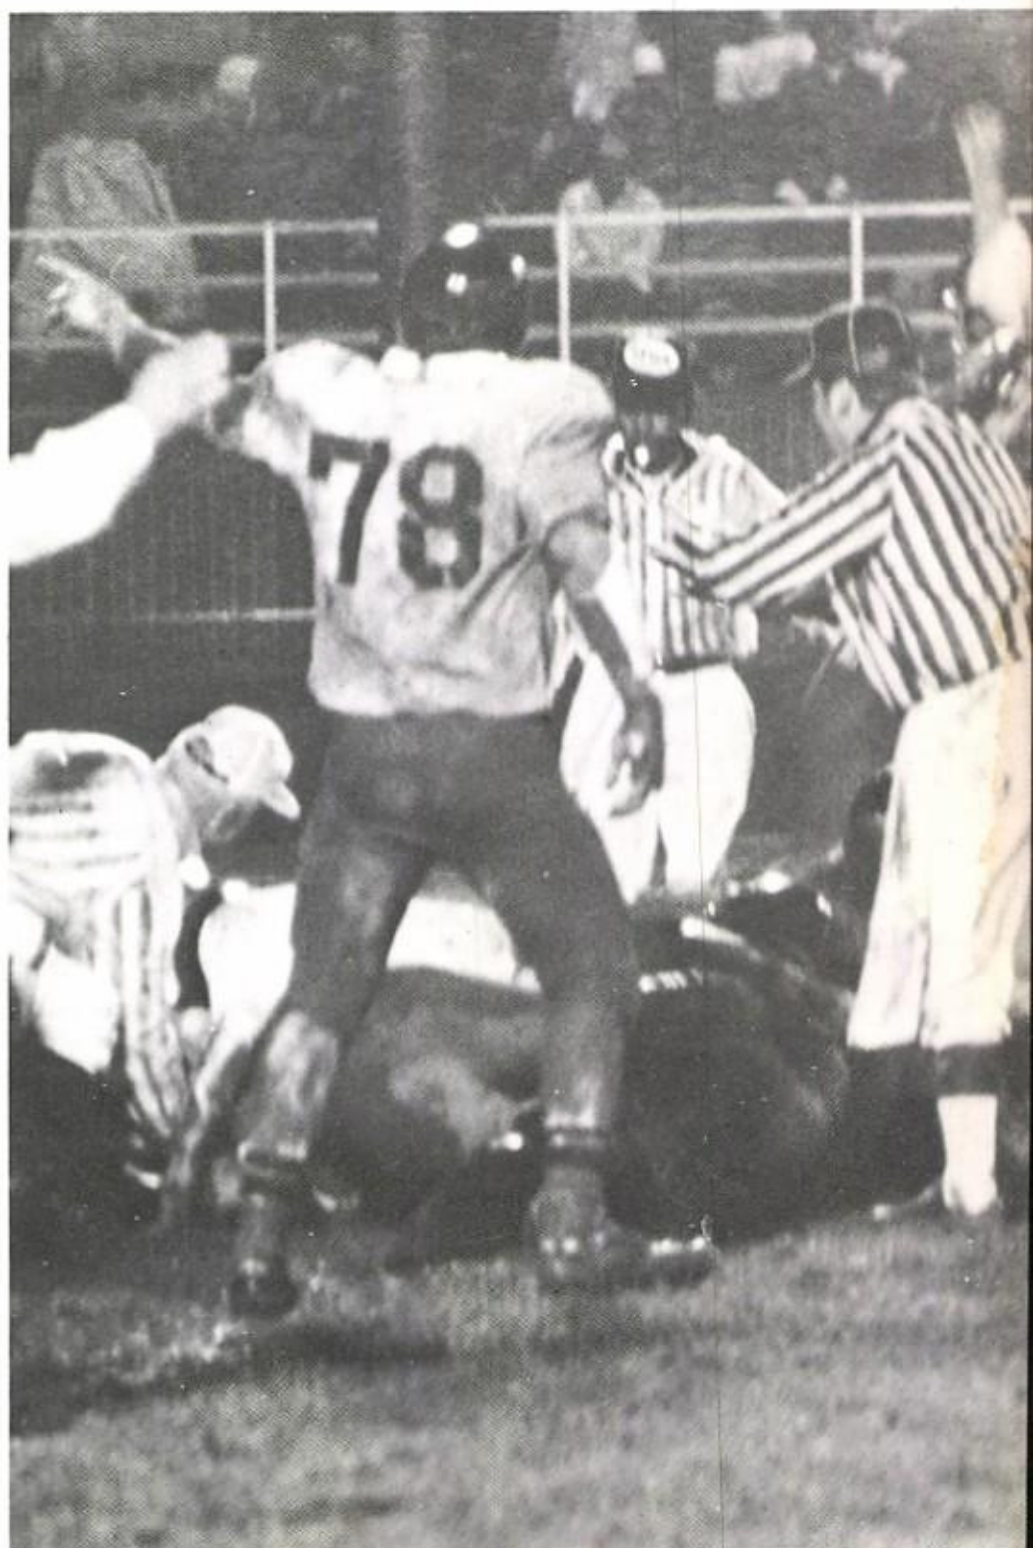

With one game left in the season, Kimball still had a chance at a three-way tie for first place with Woodrow Wilson and S.O.C. By defeating S.O.C. in this last game, they would have a chance at the district championship. In atrocious weather, the Knights went to work on the Bears. The Bears scored first and led by seven points. Just before halftime the Knights scored, making a two point conversion. The Knights then led 8-7. After halftime, however, the Bears came alive and scored two third quarter touchdowns. For the rest of the game, the defenses dominated play and neither team was able to score. The Bears came out on top 20-8, squelching the Knight's championship hopes. Spike Harlan coached his team to a successful 7-3 season. Several team members were chosen to the All-City team, and each team member put forth an "all-out" effort.

Squires Have Tough Season

Although ending the season with a 3-7 record, the B-Team gave each opponent a tough battle. Losing many games by a margin of only one or two points, the B-Team succeeded in overcoming Roosevelt, North Dallas, and Adamson. Quarterbacked by John Sellers, the B-Team played well defensively and lost only in the last few seconds. While the B-Team had problems "getting it together" at the first of the season, they came on strong in the last half, showing much improvement and great promise for a superb Kimball team in '72.

Basketball

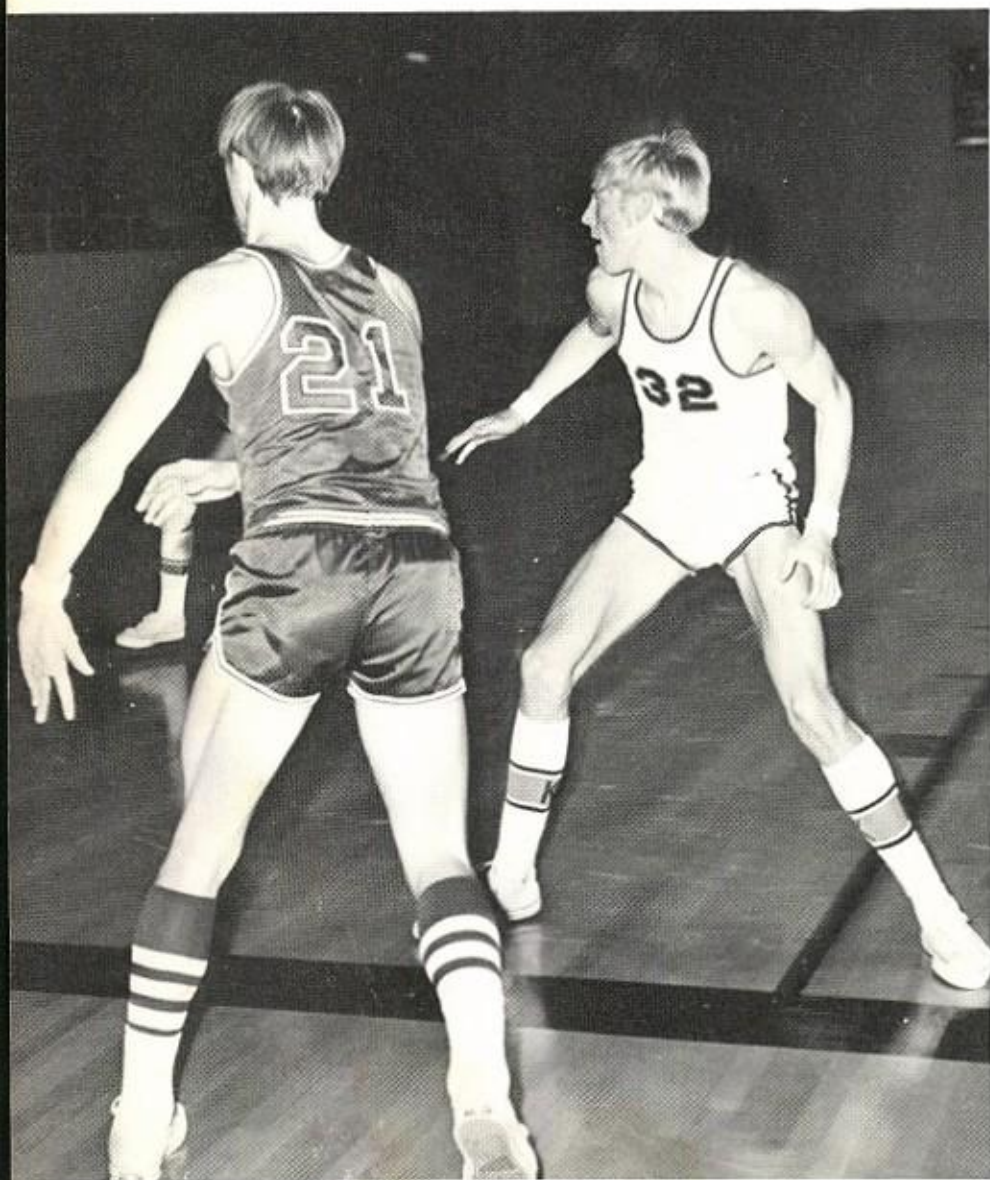

Cagers Produce Championship Team

Kimball basketball players had it rough from the start. Practice began in the summer and never stopped until the last shot of the season was made. The long hours of practice and the sacrifice involved, however, were not wasted as Kimball basketball produced an exciting, championship team.

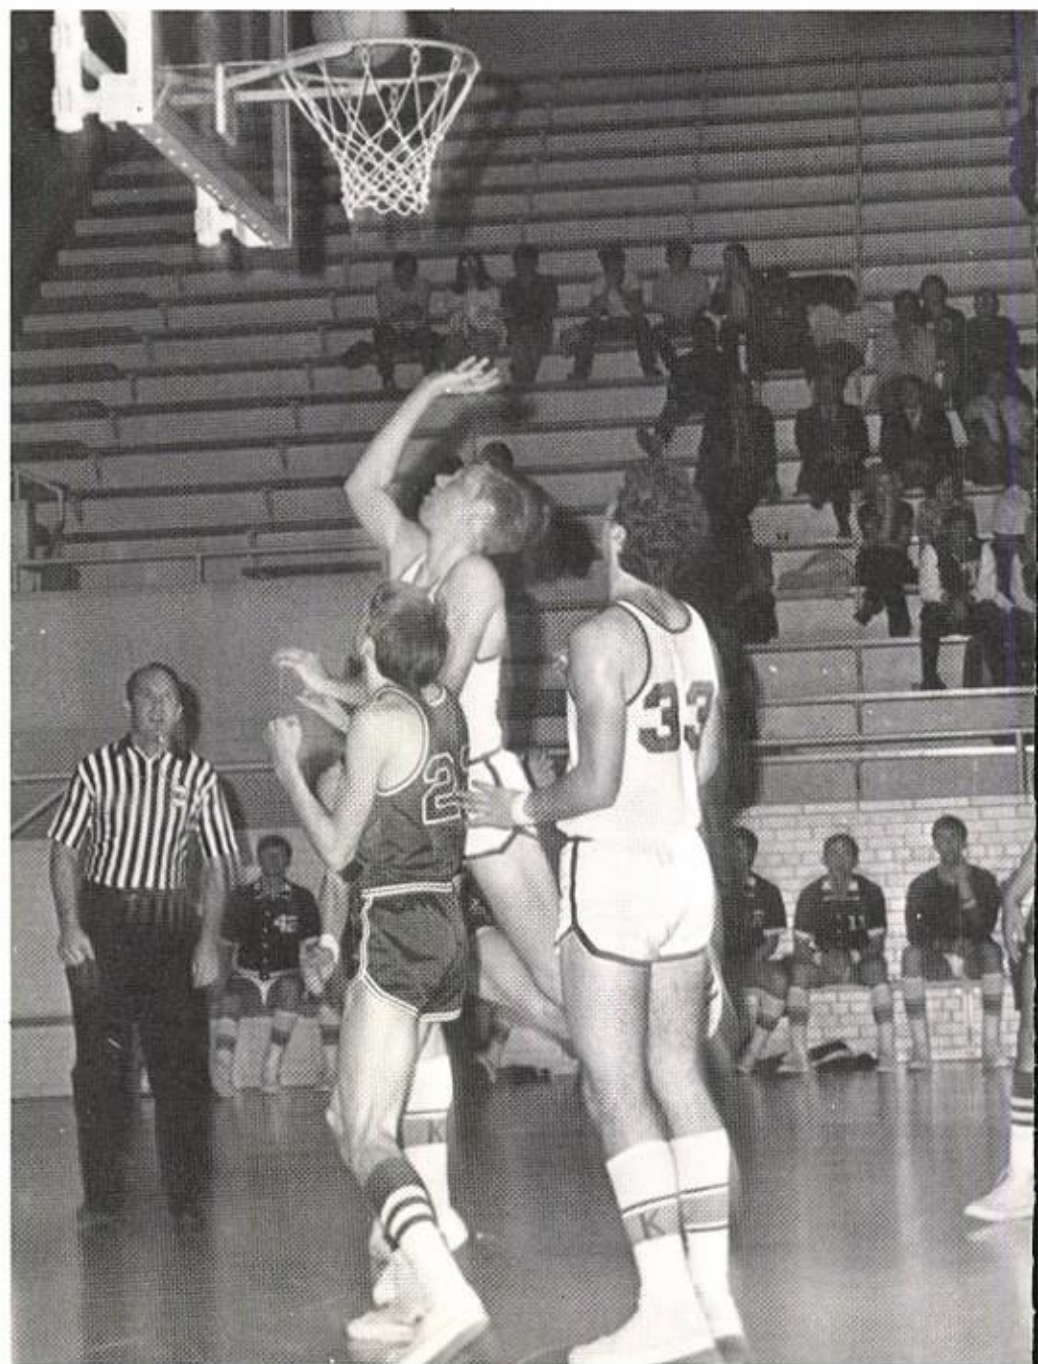

Leading the team with height and ability were Larry Chesney, Mark Ellis, and Andy Jones. These men kept the team alive by producing a great percentage of the points per game. At the guards, Gene Hanson and Eddie Fitzhugh developed a winning combination built around a tough defense that harassed every opponent. Seniors Clark Lacy, David Miracle, Curtis Coliz, Clifford Britton, Larry Frazier, and Tony Maxwell brought the fresh blood into each game, giving the first five a breather. Juniors Marvin Daniels and Paul Allen added talent to the team and managed to substitute frequently, adding their ability to each game.

Kimball Beats Roosevelt for South Zone Title

In pre-season, Kimball began to prove its ability by winning the Kimball Classics. One of the greatest achievements, however, was the winning of the Arlington Classics. Teams from all over the state were beaten by Kimball and Kimball emerged as champion. The only loss of the season was to Garland as Kimball came in third place in the Dr. Pepper Tournament.

As district play started, Kimball had tough competition from the beginning. Roosevelt and Crozier Tech were two of the hottest teams, and Kimball squeaked past these two opponents by the narrowest of margins. Kimball, however, lost no games through February 18 and the second big game with Roosevelt arrived. The Knights had a rough night and were down by 11 points at the end of the third quarter. Hanson and Chesney then sparked a comeback and in a double overtime, the Knights beat Roosevelt by a score of 71-70 and won the south zone, becoming district champs.

Squire Cagers Set Records

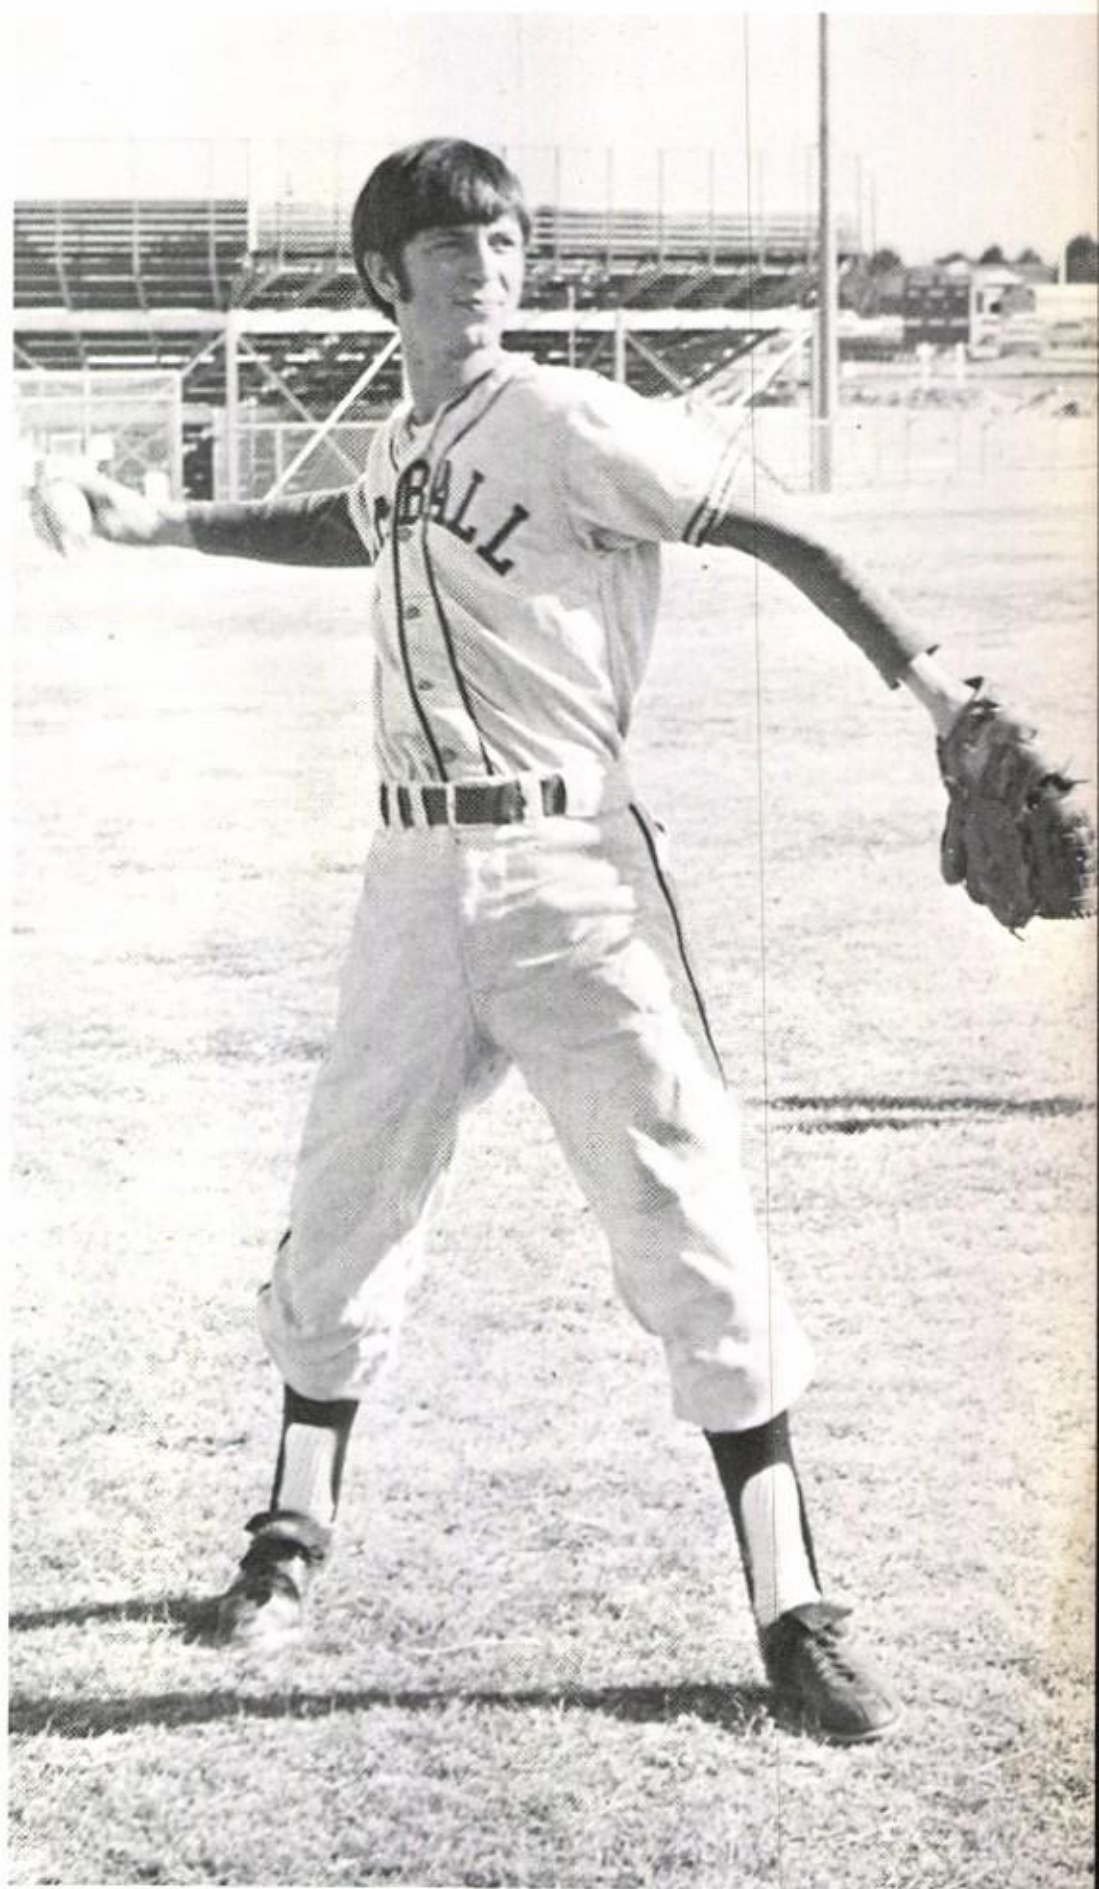

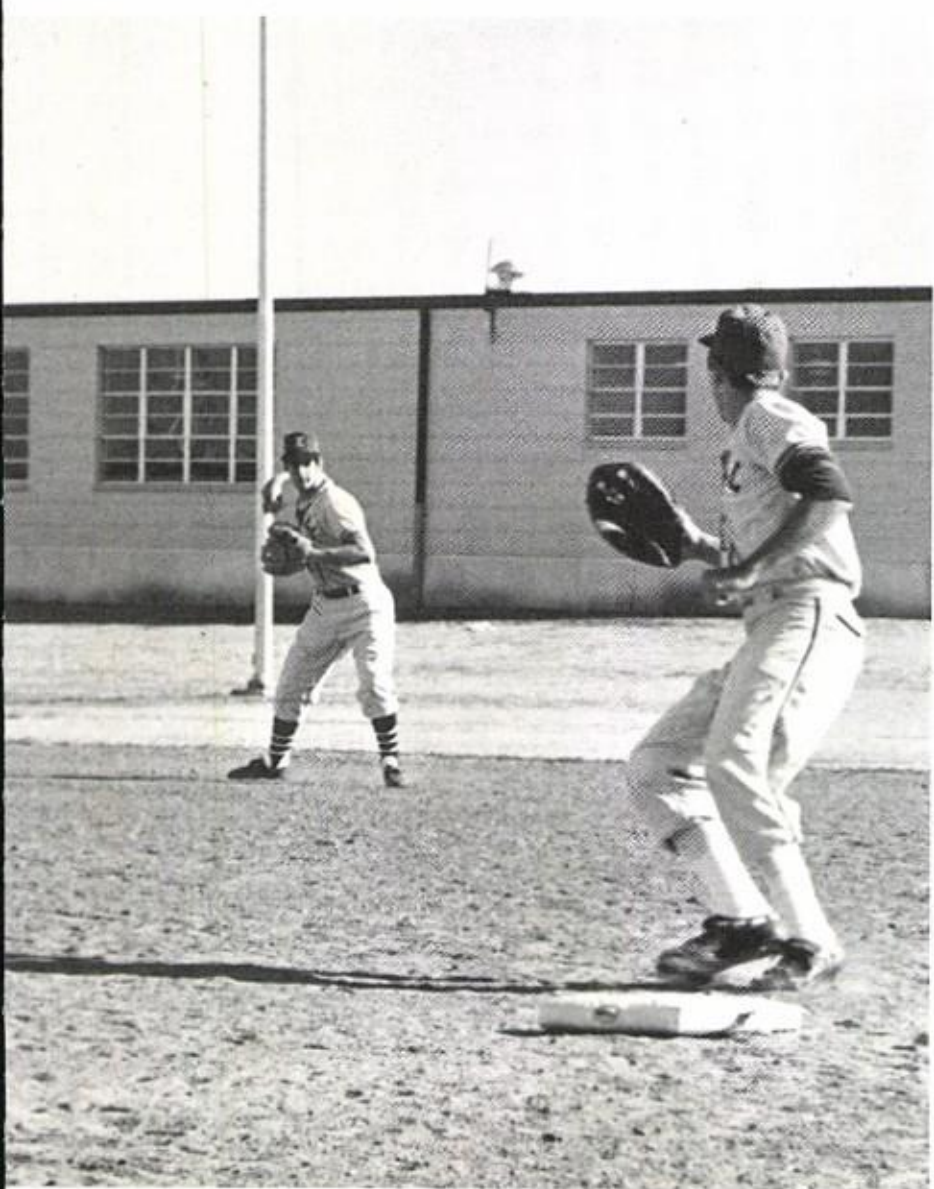

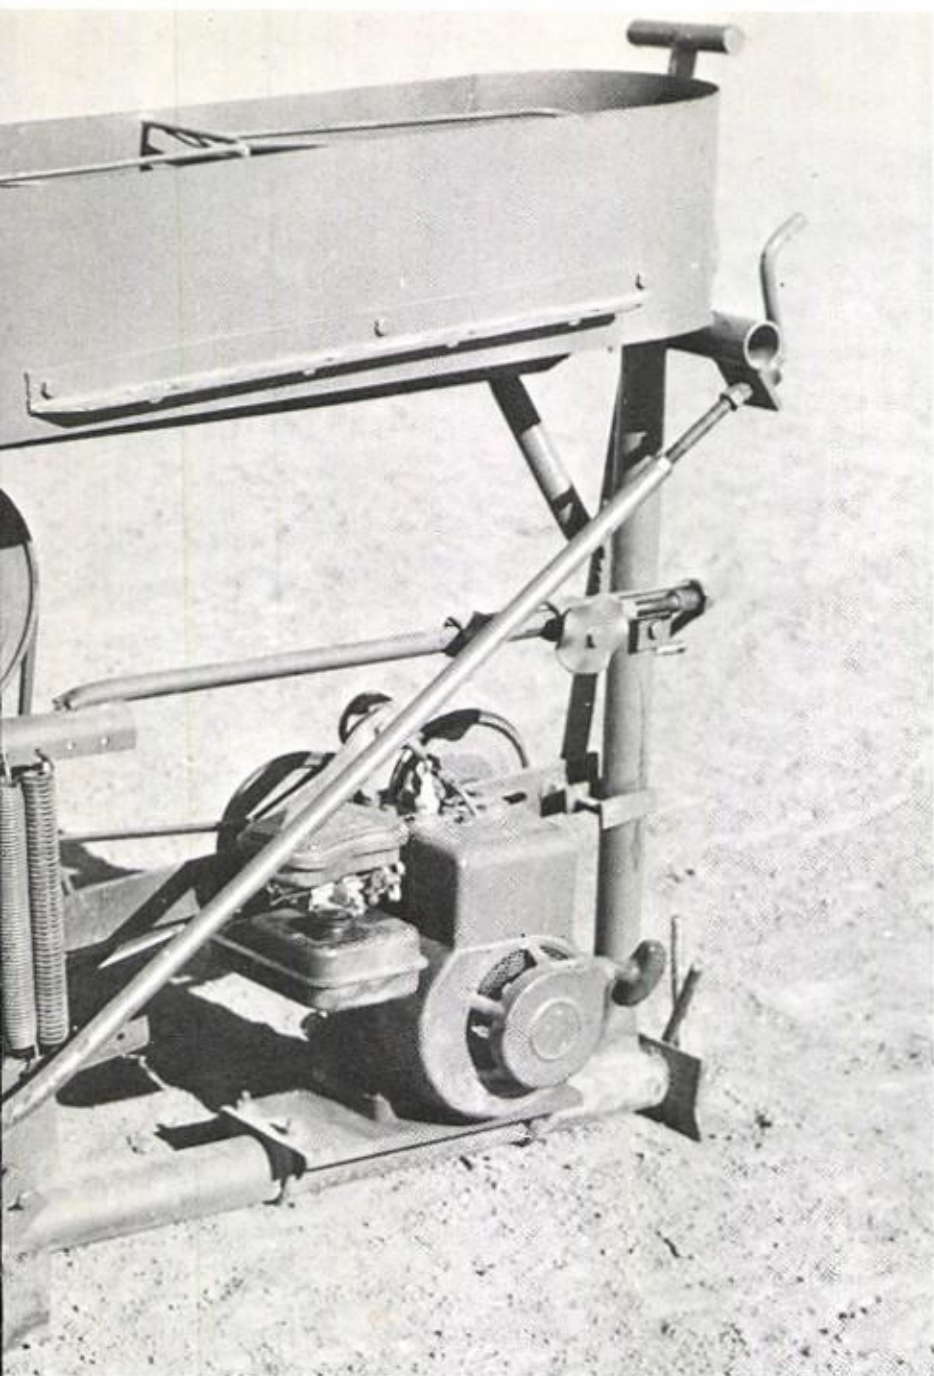

Cliff Gonzales drives toward the basket.

Although many B-Teamers came to Kimball with very little experience, they were formed into an effective offensive and defensive unit. Instructed by Coach Beavers, the team had an extremely successful season; winning twenty-two out of twenty-eight games. The squire cagers also set a new record this year by scoring one hundred and one points against Roosevelt.

Leading the team were offensive standouts Marvin Belden, Gary McGuire, Mike Mehaffie, Dale Martin, and Charles Mills. These men worked as a team and developed a coordination that won them many games. Because of this talent, Coach Brown expects a superb varsity team next year.

Baseball

Baseball Men Produce Winning Season

Kimball baseball kept up the fine tradition of producing winning teams this year. Led by returning lettermen James Stinson, Raymond Cantu, Randy Horton, Brad Millsap, and Kirk Patten, the team combined experience with talent to produce a successful season. Brad Millsap, a member of the 1970 All-District team, paced the Knights by providing strength with the bat and outstanding defensive play. James Stinson, a member of the All-City team in 1970, pitched Kimball to many victories.

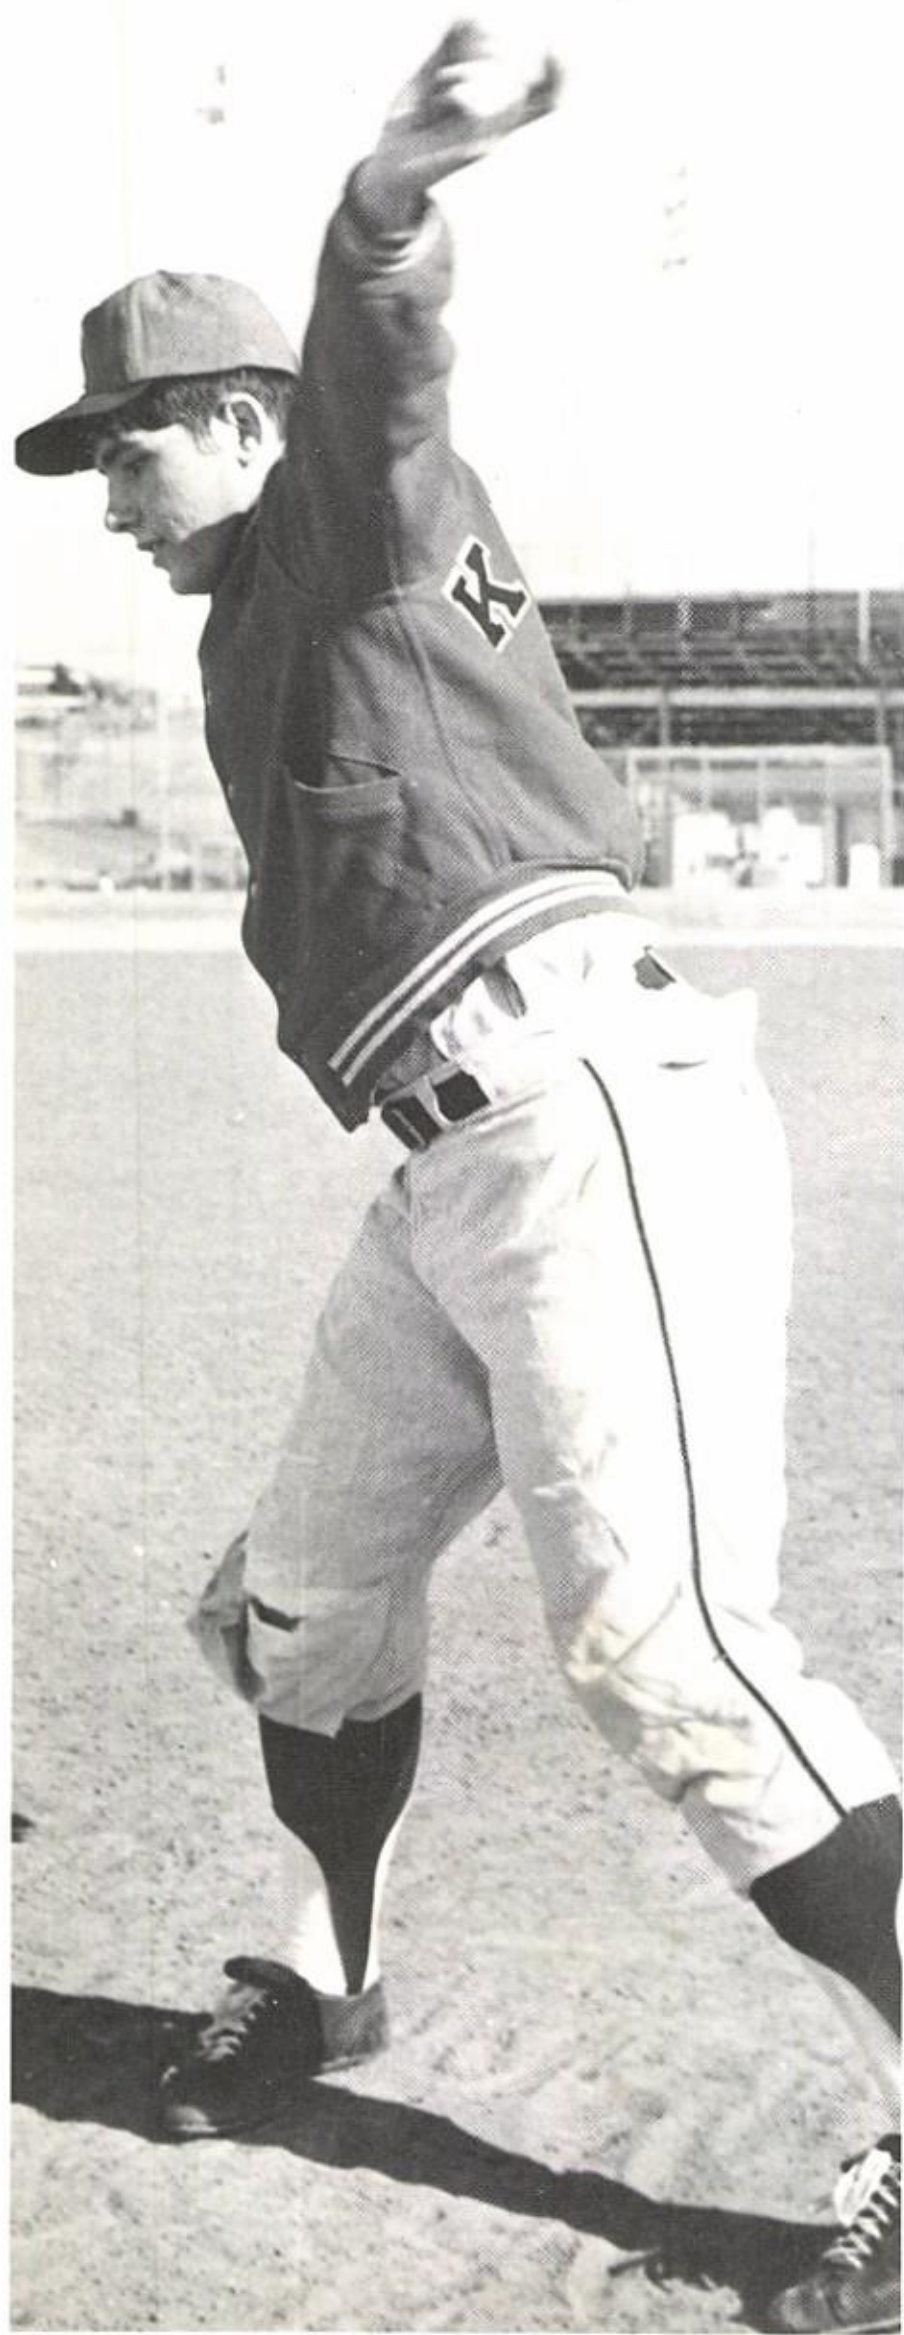

Beginning pre-season play against Richardson Pearce, the Knights showed their power by easily winning 19-3. After losing to Carter in the district opener, the Knights then proceeded to a rewarding season of victories.

Track season got off to a successful start at the Houston meet this year. Several Knights finished high in the standings against teams from all over the state. Phil Callison was a standout for Kimball, winning the broad jump with a jump that was only two inches short of the record.

In the Kimball Relays, Kimball also placed high with the relay teams doing a superb job. The Cindermen again went to the district and city meets, bringing much glory to Kimball.

Netters Overcome Tough Opposition

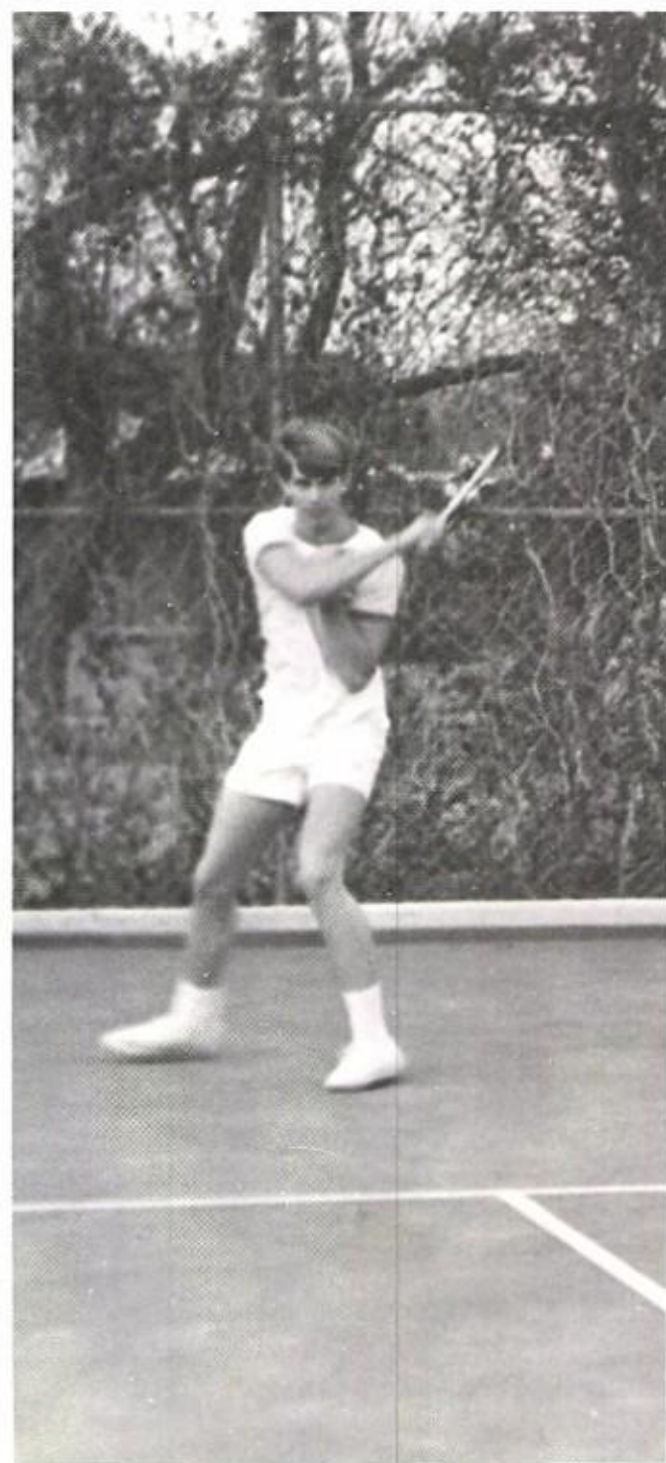

Tennis got underway this season by the team's being picked as the district winner. Sportswriters chose Kimball netters to win their division, closely followed by Adamson.

Coach Martin based his hopes of a championship on the returning lettermen Becky Reed, Sally Roberson, Laural Rose, and John Mangione. These four lead Kimball's team in experience and ability. Other seniors on the team, Lyman Bilhartz, Bobby Aydelotte, Bruce Worth, and Gary Ewell round out the nucleus of the team.

In pre-season matches, Kimball dominated play and got off to a fast start in district games. Ending up the year, the team traveled to Tyler, Texas, to compete in a state-wide tournament.

Golfers Emerge Strong Contenders for Title

Golf members found the 1970-71 season to be one of the best in Kimball's history. Making the nucleus of the team were three returning lettermen, Larry Degenhart, Steve Upham, and Eddie Carpenter. Rounding out the team were three seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore.

In the fall, the team enjoyed pre-season victories over 11-AAA defending champion Hillcrest and pre-season favorite Thomas Jefferson. Later, in the first annual Dallas High School Golf Championship, Steve Upham emerged champion, shooting a 75.

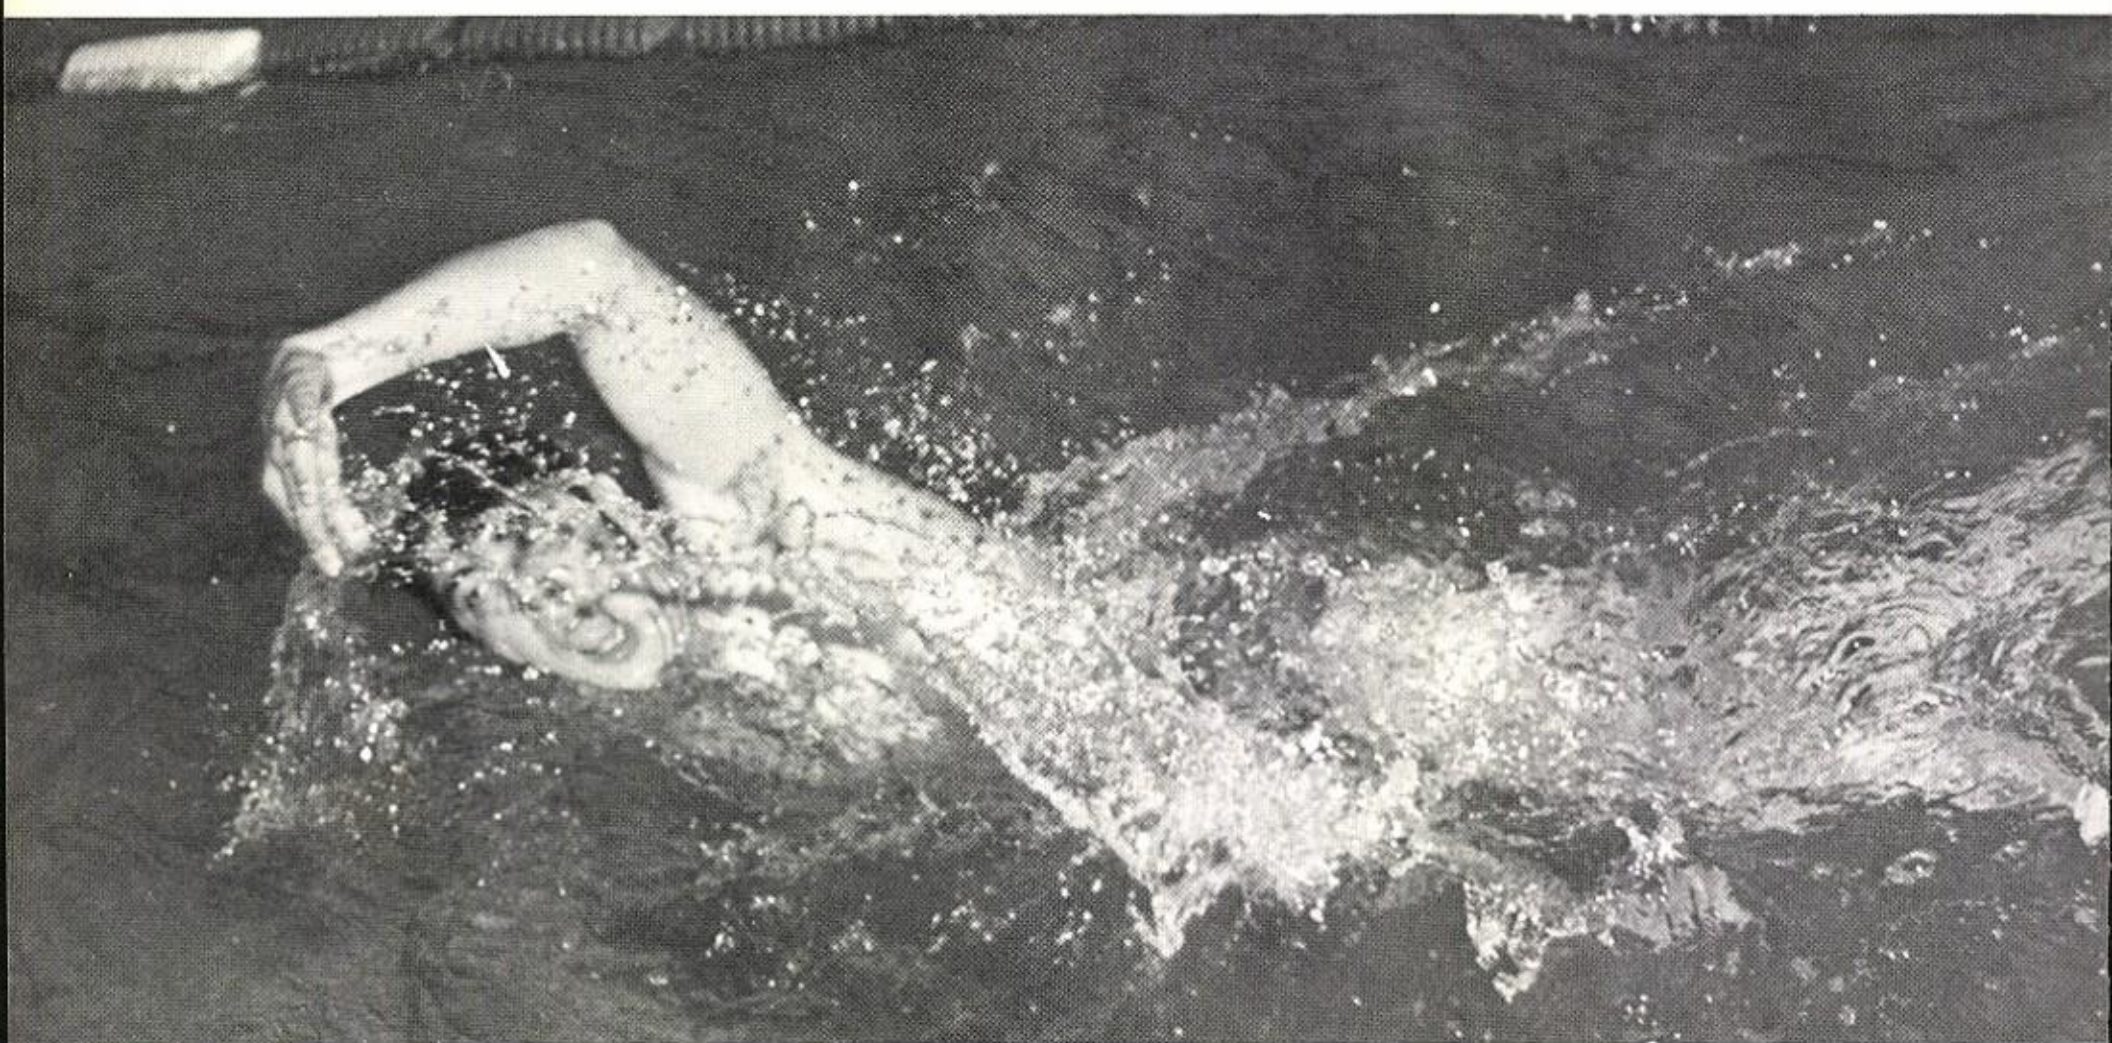

As district play started, Kimball found its opponent to be the Carter Cowboys, who were picked to give Kimball its strongest match. Kimball defeated Carter by a score of 6-0 and was well on its way to one of the most successful golf seasons so far.

Swimming

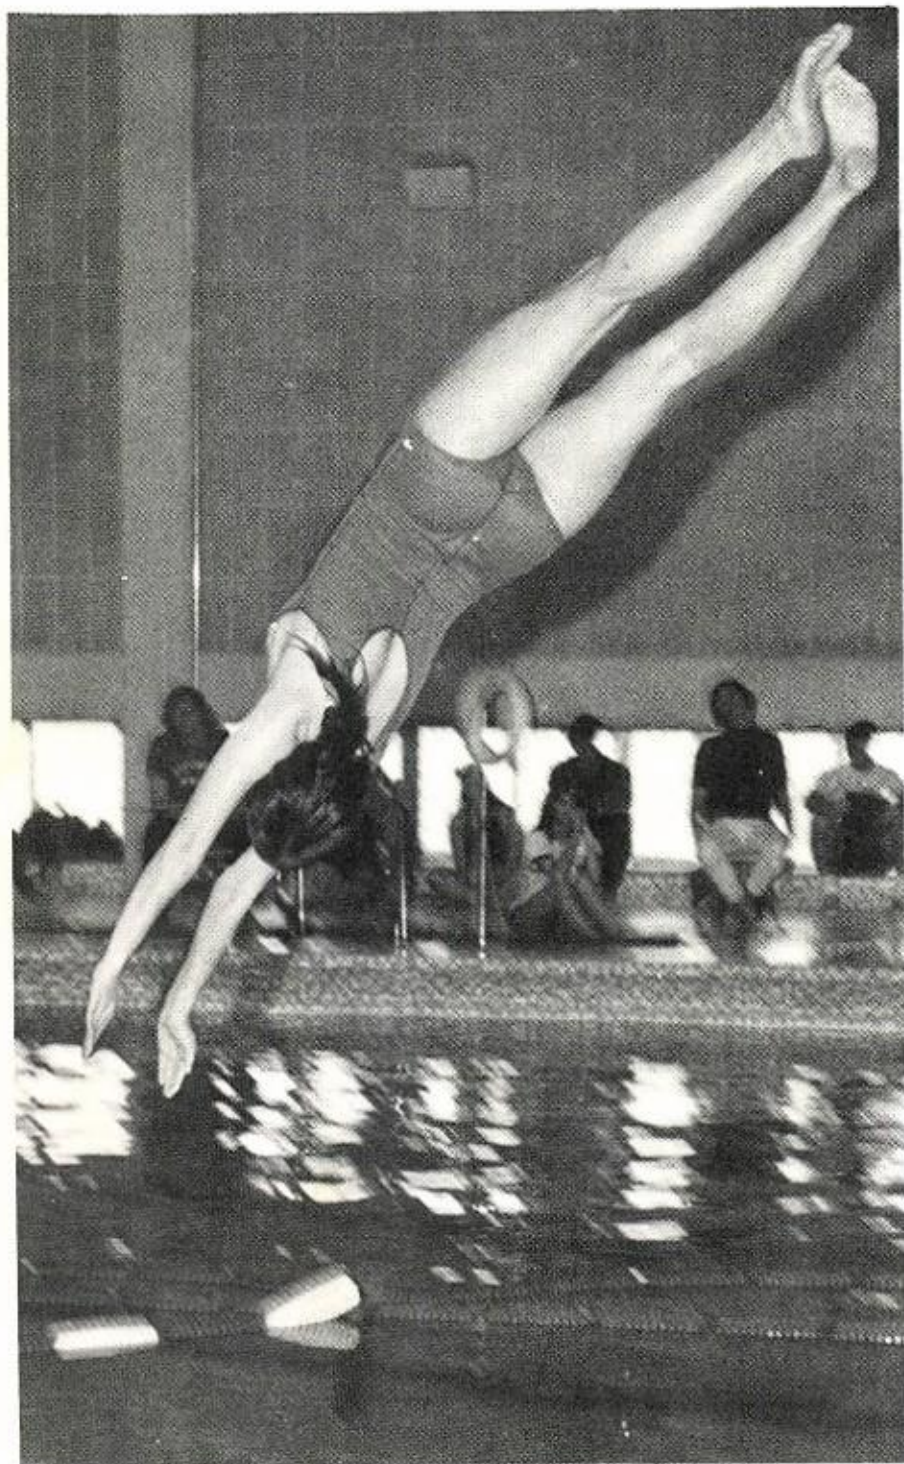

Aquamen Splash Toward Victory

Kimball swimmers represented Kimball well by placing high in every meet. The swimming team had a tremendous record, winning well over half their meets. Two of their best meets were with Sunset and Carter. Against Sunset, the Knights held a slim lead throughout and secured a victory only on the last few events. The score was even closer against Carter, with Kimball winning only on the last event.

Several Kimball swimmers brought acclaim to Kimball. Mike McCullough set many records in the fifty yard free style, while the medley relay team of Mike Hood, David Turner, Mark Breaux, and Mike McCullough beat its own record by two seconds. The team had several qualifiers for the district meet, and swimmers also attended the state meet.

F.L.A.G.

F.L.A.G., a newly established club at Kimball, represented patriotism and honor for our country this past year. Members of the club strived to represent their country and school as well as they could by truly being Future Leaders of American Government.

As a part of their busy schedule F.L.A.G. participated in such varied activities as viewing the legislature at work in Austin, listening to guest speakers, visiting the armed forces, and placing a wreath on the Kennedy Memorial in downtown Dallas. As a special honor the members of F.L.A.G. were able to participate in the activities surrounding the events in which Kimball was presented an American flag that had flown over the nation's capital.
